Junior Red Cross membership is increasing by leaps and bounds all over the world. Before Munich there were twenty million members in 50 countries. Now there are approximately thirty million Junior Red Cross members in 49 countries with the greater part of this increase in branches in Canada and United States. British Columbia now has 55,000 members and over 2,000 branches. On the Pacific Coast 88 per cent of

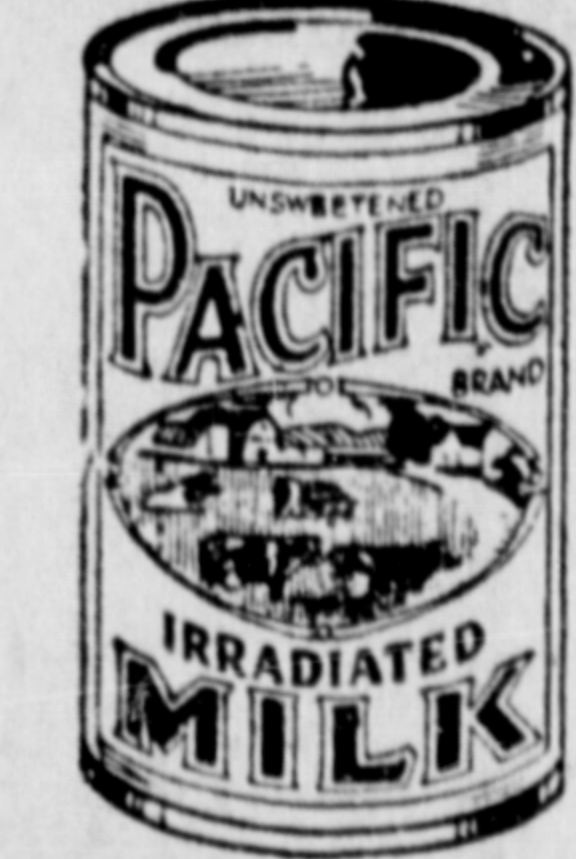

● ANNUAL MEETING of the Prince Rupert Branch will be held on Friday, January 25th, at 8 p.m., in the Workroom, cor. Second Ave. and Fourth St. Business: Annual reports; Election of officers; General business. All those donating One Dollar or more to the 1945 campaign are members of the Society. —21

9,000 schools in the five western United States have 100 per cent of their pupils enrolled in Junior Red Cross this year.

"Pride of the Marines," the film which features Red Cross workers and carries a Canadian Red Cross "trailer," will be shown in several cities in B. C. during the next few months. Capitol Theatre in Prince Rupert will show it March 1 and 2.

From the little town of Klanjec in Yugoslavia, birthplace of Marshal Broz-Tito, the partisan leader, comes an expression of thanks to the Canadian Red Cross for the bedding, clothing and hospital supplies distributed throughout the country. "We let you know that through your support, tears and suffering have been relieved and a happy smile appeared on many lips," reads the letter. In the first six months of 1945 alone, Canadian Red Cross shipped 46,460 articles in addition to 8,245 cases of mixed supplies to Yugoslavia. A picture postcard of the marshal's birthplace accompanies the letter. It showed a pretty, peaceful looking little town, with white-walled houses huddled close together in a small valley where cultivated fields roll down from wooded mountains.

The marriage took place in Vancouver on Monday of Miss Beatrice Didricksen, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Didricksen, 608 Fourth Avenue East, to Ralph Browne, formerly sergeant with the United States Army Public Relations office in Prince Rupert. Mr. and Mrs. Browne will arrive in Prince Rupert on the Princess Louise on Monday, and a reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents that evening.

KINSMEN NAME COMMITTEES

Active Season Is Anticipated During Year 1946

Anticipating that 1946 will be filled with as much activity, or even more, than was 1945, Prince Rupert Kinsmen Club President William Jarmson last night appointed standing committees at the club's first business meeting of the year.

Proposed projects for the year were referred to the ways and means committee which will report back to the membership at the next meeting. However, it was considered likely that the projects carried out last year will be undertaken again.

These included the May 24 sports celebration, Halloween Shell out, and Christmas seal campaign.

Last night's meeting decided that the club would not act on a proposal by Fire Chief H. T. Lock that the club form a volunteer fire department to supplement the regular city fire department in cases of emergency. That particular project, it was felt, would be more in line with Junior Chamber of Commerce work.

The meeting was attended by 25 members, and guests were Fred Robinson, Vancouver; Earl Gordon, Rupert; Robert G. Moore and Ivan Cameron.

The following committees were appointed by President Jarmson:

Ways and Means—R. E. Montador, chairman; Pierre Le Ross, James Bremner.

Kin Education—Dr. A. Galbraith, Alex Armstrong, Sergeant at Arms—Alex Armstrong.

Entertainment—George Dibb, chairman; Stuart Johnstone, Ray Allen, Bruce Stevens.

Club Historian—Allen Morgan.

Inter-club Relations—Clarence Thomson, Maurice Irving.

Bulletin Editor—Norman Carter.

Publicity—Stan Saville.

House Committee—C. H. Collins.

Membership—The club executive. President William Jarmson, Vice President R. E. Montador, Secretary Harold Munsey, Treasurer Maurice Irving and executive members Allen Morgan, Alex Armstrong and Dr. A. D. Galbraith.

Southpaws Smart Says Specialist

LONDON (AP)—Persons who are naturally left-handed are the equal or perhaps superior to those who are right-handed in intelligence and athletic and manual skill, Dr. W. Russell Brain, psychiatrist and brain specialist, said in the medical journal Lancet.

"The pathological left-hander, however, is a natural right-hander with a damaged brain and is doubly handicapped both by his brain lesion and by having to use the hand which, in his case, is by nature the less skillful."

Dr. Brain, noting that twice as many men as women are left-handed, said "children who write with the left hand should be allowed to do this if they wish."

Religious Concert Is Greatly Enjoyed

KINCOLITH—A strong revival of religious interest is taking place here, aided by a visit from George L. Stewart, Prince Rupert evangelist. Mr. Stewart is a graduate of a Seattle evangelical school and is actively interested in the native people.

Mr. Stewart directed a program of religious songs and music sponsored by the Church Army and the Church Army sisters at the week-end. The Church Army hall was filled and the congregation enjoyed the varied program greatly.

The orchestra which supplied background music for the singers consisted of Arthur Nelson, violin; William Martin, saxophone; George Clayton, saxophone; Hubert Doolan, mandolin; Bennett Clayton, guitar, and Willie Stewart, piano.

GAS TURBINE JET ENGINES

LONDON (AP)—A British aircraft company has produced the first gas turbine unit in the world to drive a propeller. The company claims that the new engine will give a cruising speed of 300 miles per hour at 20,000 feet. Fuel consumption is comparable to that of a piston engine. About four-fifths of its 2,600 horsepower is used in driving the airscrew and the remainder for jet propulsion.
