CHURCH RITES AND RECEPTION

Marked Marriage Rites of Miss Lucille Ledovillier and William Harris

A quiet ceremony in the chapel of the Pro-Cathedral of the Annunciation with Rev. Father J. Carroll officiating and a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sunberg, 314 Sixth Avenue West, marked the marriage on Saturday evening last of Miss Lucille Margaret Ledovillier of Mattis, Saskatchewan, and William Harris of Prince Rupert.

Given in marriage by Mrs. Charles Sunberg, the bride was a lovely figure in her white satin gown with floor-length veil. Her bouquet was of pink roses with white streamers.

Miss Ann Sunberg, the bridesmaid, wore a becoming gown of pink and white with bouquet of pink carnations and white asters.

Emil Bohn was groomsman.

For the reception the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sunberg was attractively decorated with evergreens and fresh mixed flowers, roses predominating. In one corner there was a lovely arch of evergreens and varicolored roses. It was there under a white wedding bell that the couple received the felicitations of their friends. Guests were received by Mrs. Sunberg and Mrs. L. Bohn.

A buffet supper was served by Mrs. William Geddes, Mrs. Mary Murray and Miss Kay Black, the feature of refreshments being a handsome three-tier wedding cake on a table with a white cut lace cloth. The cake was cut with a sword by bride and groom.

The evening was rounded out
