These gradually lead up o the medium flowers with the tall varieties like delphiniums, phlox, dahlias etc., at the back. Just for variety it is well to bring a few of the taller sorts forward here and there. Generally speaking, smaller and slimmer flowers make a showing when planted in clumps of three or four.

> KEEP IN MIND-Two points which the gardener must keep in mind at this time are cultivation, and pests. A garden kept well cultivated up to the middle of June will stay clean with little trouble from then on. Pestsand this includes weeds-are at any seed or hardware store.
