WELCOMED BACK AFTER MARRIAGE

Andrew McDonald and Gloria Cornwell Wedded Recently in Montana

Following their marriage recently in Scobie, Montana, Andrew McDonald, well-known Prince Rupert boy and war veteran, and his bride, the former Gloria Cornwell, arrived in Prince Rupert at the end of the week on the Catala and Saturday night there was a happy reception at the Commodore Cafe in their honor. Dancing and music, with Mrs. J. S. Black at the piano, were the order of the evening and many friends, who gathered to extend their felicitations, spent a most enjoyable evening. The guests were received by the groom's mother, Mrs. A. McKinnon.

A toast to the bride and groom was appropriately proposed by C. A. Berner and responded to by the groom. The parents of the couple were toasted by J. Andrew.

Both bride and groom were in the services during the war, the bride having been stationed at Prince Rupert with the Women's Division of the Royal Canadian Air Force and the groom serving with the Royal Canadian Navy.

The couple have taken up residence here, the groom being in the service of the Canadian Fishing Co.
