Major Crab Fishing Industry Looms On Islands—Fishing For Herring Next Activity

Possibility that a major crab fishing industry may develop on the Queen Charlotte Islands, growing out of high prices being paid for the crustaceans, is arousing comment on the coast. Key to expansion of the industry, however, is the development of methods of shipping the crabs so that they will arrive at their destinations fresh and with their full natural flavor.

Methods of shipping are subject of experimentation by the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative at the present time. Results of the experiments also may have a result in widening the market for shrimps, of which there are numerous beds along the coast.

At present, due to lack of a standard method of preserving while in shipment. Crabs and shrimps enjoy only local demand. This may be widened, however, if trial shipments to the continental market now being made by the Co-op bear results. Various methods being tried are quick-freezing, packing in ice, freezing the meat separately.

"THREE WISE FOOLS" HERE

Thrilling moving picture version of the famous stage play of long standing, "Three Wise Fools" concludes its engagement at the Capitol Theatre here tonight. It has been showing for two days now and proved popular with the audience.

"Three Wise Fools," in which Margaret O'Brien, most popular current child star, has the feminine lead, tells the gripping story of a little girl who believes in fantasy and miracles and her overwhelming effect upon the lives of three very self-centered and self-seeking elderly men. In the roles of the three old men, Lionel Barrymore, Lewis Stone and Edward Arnold are admirably cast. A surprising and dramatic denouement comes as a result of the three old men to win the youngster back after they fear, through their misunderstanding, they have lost her.

Also prominent in the cast are Thomas Mitchell, Charlie Dingle, Henry O'Neill and Cyd Charisse.

REBEKAH SALE WAS SUCCESSFUL

Hallow'en motif Featured
Affair Thursday Afternoon

Hallow'en figures and fall flowers set the atmosphere for the Rebekah's bazaar held in the Oddfellows' Hall Thursday afternoon, which was successful both financially and socially despite stormy weather.

Filled with attractive articles, the stalls were decorated with a color scheme of orange and black set off with black cats and witches. Fall flowers were displayed attractively throughout the hall.

The floral effect was particularly attractive in the tea room where a daintily appointed tea table covered with a lace cloth was centred with many bright blooms.

General convener was Miss Molly Owens, who was assisted by Mrs. H. Thurgood in receiving the guests. Tea room arrangements were under charge of Mrs. W. G. Sheardown, lodge mistress, assisted by Mrs. H. V. Tattersall, Mrs. A. Barbe and Miss Margaret Maguire.

Serviteurs were Mrs. George Howe, Mrs. B. R. Dobbs and Mrs. Alida Johnson. Pourers were Mrs. J. W. McKinley, Mrs. Hammond, Mrs. S. V. Cox and Mrs. Lineham.

In charge of the fancy work and baby clothes stall were Mrs. C. McLeod and Mrs. Haines. The apron stall was in the hands of Mrs. C. Saunders and Mrs. C. Quandt. Mrs. Bert Morgan and Mrs. Bruce Love were in charge of novelties, while the delicatessen stall was under charge of Mrs. J. S. Irvine, Mrs. T. Priest and Mrs. J. E. Boddie.

Mrs. Howe was in charge of the door.

Mrs. William McLeod was winner of the drawing, with a ticket drawn by Miss Marjorie Tattersall.
