Heroines of War Meet at Luncheon

LONDON (CP) — Three of the bravest women of Britain met for lunch recently, sorry because another heroine, Cpl. Joan Pearson of the Women's Auxiliary Air Force, had to stay at home with her sick mother. All four hold the George Cross for valor. Cpl. Pearson won her award for freeing a pilot from a blazing, bomb-laden aircraft. At the luncheon were Odette Sansom tortured by the Gestapo because she refused to betray a British officer; Sister Dorothy Thomas, nurse who prevented a catastrophe after an explosion in the main theatre of Middlesex Hospital; and Emma Townsend, who tried to save a boy patient from an attack by his father in hospital.

Back From Motor Trip to Prairies

SMITHERS — Mr. and Mrs. Dick Heggie returned to Smithers this week from a three week motor trip to the prairie. They visited relatives in Moose Jaw and Regina and other points on the prairies and also in Vancouver. On their return they brought back two waitresses and a cook for their cafe in Smithers. While on the prairies they enjoyed Indian summer but snow started to fall just before they left and they bucked snow all the way back to Smithers. They came back via the States thinking they would have better weather on that route but experienced 53 inches of snow and 15 below zero weather. Also it was snowing in Vancouver while they were there.

DONCASTER, Eng. (CP)— This west coast port is like a ghost port, Harbor Commissioner P. Whelan says, while Dublin is unable to deal with the increased traffic.
