ALBERTA WINS CANADIAN CURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

SASKATOON—Alberta early this morning won the MacDonald's Brier and the Canadian Curling Championship by defeating the Northern Ontario rink 8-6 in a play-off that was brought about by a three-way tie at the end of the regular round-robin series. The win was Alberta's fourth victory in the seventeen years that the bonspiel has been played.

The Northern Ontario rink, skipped by Tommy Ramsay, won a bye into the final round of the playoff. Alberta and Manitoba, the other two rinks which ended in a tie for the right to meet Northern Ontario for the championship and Alberta posted a 8-7 victory over the Manitoba in a thrilling game that was not decided until the last rock was thrown. The three rinks finished the regular nine rounds with seven victories apiece.

In the first intermediate game of the evening Bo-Me-Hi stepped over Savoys by a score of 43-18, while in the junior league Sea Cadets defeated Gyros 24-14.

In the Co-op-Macey game Co-op led the scoring all through the regular session, only to be tied at game's end, and to lose the lead during the overtime. R. Holkestad and J. Haugan of Macey's led the scoring with 18 and 14 points respectively. Viereck was Co-op's high man with 13 points.

British radio listeners will get a "horse's eye" description of the Lincoln Handicap April 3 if present plans of the BBC materialize. Announcers will experiment with an on-the-spot broadcast from mobile transmitters. After the commentator shouts "They're off!" another announcer, travelling in an automobile alongside the course, will take up the story. Police will keep clear a 1,000-yard stretch of road beside the track.

Now it's mice racing! Laurie Jackson of Bath has founded the National Wheel Racing Mouse Club and plans to start operations shortly with a six-rail track. The mice will race inside lightweight wheels of different colors. Jackson says the idea has aroused considerable interest throughout Britain.

Canadian Army Maple Leafs, who finished on top of the overseas armed services hockey league, have withdrawn due to repatriation of many players and the two-game finals will be an all-R.C.A.F. affair. Winners of the series, between Hurricanes and Meteors, will automatically become R.C.A.F. champions overseas.

Top-class greyhounds are drawing fancy prices these days, but sales are practically non-existent. Syd Orton, Wimbledon trainer, has more than one owner prepared to pay up to $22,500 for a young greyhound capable of scoring a classic victory, but such dogs just aren't to be bought.

Alex Kyle, British amateur golf champion, still talks about his experience in the West Yorkshire golfers alliance competition at Fixby, Huddersfield. He reached the green with his second shot and over-ran with his putt. A sudden gust of wind blew his ball back into the hole to give him a "birdie" three.
