An indication of the cost of the hundreds of windows broken was revealed by a local insurance broker on the strength of claims for insured plate glass panes smashed on Hallowe'en night. This one broker said that his company has received claims totalling more than $1,000 for plate glass. This does not include the value of ordinary window glass broken.

According to Sgt. O. L. Hall, the city police are in the midst of a comprehensive survey of the Hallowe'en damage. He indicated that prosecutions may result.
