THIS AND THAT

"It must be an extraordinary dull novel. He was just browsing through the book!"

Whifflets
From The Waterfront

With 88 passengers on board, all going through and the most of them Alaskans bound north for the holiday season, C.P.R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. P. L. Leslie, was in port from 10 o'clock to 1 o'clock yesterday morning on her way from Vancouver to Skagway. The most of the time spent here was in loading perishable foodstuffs for southeastern Alaska ports. The Louise will be back again Thursday afternoon southbound.

Having made a speedy voyage north in spite of snow conditions, Union steamer Coquitlam Capt. John Boden, arrived in port at 3:45 yesterday afternoon from Vancouver and waypoints and sailed at midnight for Stewart and other northern points whence she will return here tomorrow morning southbound.
