When I know of a better oil — I'll tell you

Yes, sir, and I can tell you right now RPM Motor Oil is tops. It's compounded! And boy, does that ever make a difference to your engine! Your car's cooling system can't stop the fiery heat of modern motors from blasting cylinder walls... but RPM sure can... and does! Most oils duck from such hot spots, but not RPM. This means better lubrication and a lot less wear. Save Money, see your Standard Dealer and change today to RPM.

Your Standard Man

P.S.— Don't carry a lot of dough with you when you're travelling. Use a Standard Credit Card. It's good in the United States and right here at home, too. Your Standard Dealer will be glad to take your application.

FASTBALL PLEASES CROWDS

Grotto Has Easy Win Over Reserve While Bo-Me-Hi Gives 99 Hard Game

In the first league fastball game last evening Grotto had an easy win over Reserve Army by 15 to 2 although the latter fought hard to the end. Pallister pitched a good game and, with Watmough and then Sunberg, made a good battery but too many errors in the field cost them the game. Barracough came in for a run in the second inning and Pallister for the other run in the sixth.

Grotto started off with five of the first seven to bat all scoring in the first inning. Five more in the second, one in the third and four in the fifth completed the count. Arney and Moxley scored three runs each. Bury, Gillis and Dell had two each and Smith had one. Moxley made a home run to which faulty fielding contributed. Arney, Gillis, Holkestad, Moxley and Pallister all had two-baggers.

A triple play was a feature with Arney catching a batter, touching second for a second put-out and throwing to first to complete the triple killing.

Grotto—Kerr, B. Simonson, Budy, Arney, Dell, Gillis, Moxley, Smith and Holkestad.
Reserve—Watmough, Pallister, Alexander, Mintenk, McCubbin, Barracough, Korulok, Sunberg and Helgerson.

the taxi men an 8-1 win. The first two innings were scoreless but the heavy hitting of 99 brought in four runs in the third with Postuk, Calderoni, Windle and A. Smith all scoring. Ratchford and Dominato added two in the fourth and Smith and Houston two in the seventh. Scherk scored the only run for the students. Wesch pitched good ball for the losers and James was a good partner. Schroeder and Postuk were the battery for the taxi men and turned in a good performance.

Dominato had two two-baggers and Ratchford one.

Both teams played smart ball with the students fielding and throwing with lots of snap. Forman brought off three fine catches in the outfield.

Teams:
Bo-Me-Hi—Hartwig, Ciccone, Forbes, Lavigne, Forman, Holkestad, Wesch, James, Scherk.
99 Taxi—Postuk, Calderone, Ratchford, Windle, A. Smith, Montesano, Houston, Schroeder, Dominato.

Fastball Comments
99 Taxi men appeared in their bright new purple and gold sweaters and caps. They would have been an easy first in a fashion parade—not for a beauty contest though.

The fans had lots to talk about when the students got the Taxi-men in a jam with three runners unable to decide who really was on third base. Nearly all the experts had the right solution—but they were nearly all different!

Minor Simonson, behind the plate, umpired both games in

Better English
By D. C. WILLIAMS

1. What is wrong with this sentence? "I am awfully glad to see you again."
2. What is the correct pronunciation of "protege"?
3. Which one of these words is misspelled? Benjamin, Bartholomew, Benedict.
4. What does the word "inefficacy" mean?
5. What is a word beginning with pa that means "spectacular display"?

Answers
1. Say, "I am very glad." 2. Pronounce pro-ta-zha, o as in no, both a's as in day, principal accent on last syllable. 3. Benjamin. 4. Want of power to produce the desired or proper effect. "The inefficacy was soon proved, like that of many similar medicines." 5. Pageantry.

SHORT SPORT

There was a big crowd watching the usual number of dogs of all colors, shapes and sizes in a pity the pound-keeper set a fastball fan.

At the rate some of the dogs on the roof of the scorer's box are destroying the netting there will be none left after a few more games.

The ground is in fair shape but it would be in a much better condition if the players of the various teams got together in a working bee. With a dozen men, and men to handle them, and then a good rolling, the surface would be easily improved.
