KINNAIRD, B. C. (P)-The district school strike has been settled and children of grades 1 to 5 are now attending school at nearby Castlegar.

Parents refused two weeks ago to let their younger children go to Castlegar as ordered by the school board.

Parents claimed facilities at Kinnaird Hall were inadequate for conducting of classes.

Children now will go to Castlegar until Kinnaird Hall is improved. The renovations are expected to be carried out about October 1.
