BERLIN (AP)—The organ grinder, that vagabond of melody, has reappeared for the first time since war in rubble-lined streets of downtown Berlin.

He's just a tramp trying to make a catch-penny living in the ruined city but he created a street scene indelibly imprinted upon the memory of a reporter for American-licensed Tagespiegel (Daily Mirror):

"All of a sudden from amidst the ruins a little song floated up. The organ grinder has reappeared and is dispensing his penny melancholy.

"At a corner of Wilhelmstrasse he has created an unforgettable scene. Women who've been pushing heavy sand trucks or passing bricks from hand to hand in a chain as gangs or rubble clearers, have abandoned their tasks and are embracing each other and dancing—dancing a waltz in the ruined street.

of war comes shuffling up the street seeking their old homes. The women rush to them and surround them. The shabby looking women put their arms around the shabbier looking men and bid them dance. The shy, broken men light up with slow smiles and try a few clumsy steps. Then they stop. Breathing heavily, the organ grinder collects his pennings and passes on. The prisoners snuffle along their road back. The women go back to their rubble piles."

Merchant Navy Club Now Four Years Old

LONDON, (AP)—Several Canadian seamen, recently arrived in port, were present when the Merchant Navy Club celebrated its fourth birthday with a BBC broadcast from the club's Piccadilly headquarters. Since it was founded, at the height of the 1941 blitz, the club has entertained seamen from all over the world and its weekly broadcast "Shipmates Ashore," has become a firm favorite in the BBC programs. Only one of the 209 broadcasts had to be abandoned, due to a particularly heavy raid. In June 1944 when a flying bomb was heard to cut out nearby, the Shipmates' Orchestra, conducted by Debry Somers, gave an extra-loud rendering of "Rule Britannia." The crash of the bomb was drowned out by our brass and drums," Somers said.

South Africa Plans War On Tuberculosis

DURBAN, South Africa, (AP)—Plans for a nation-wide attack on tuberculosis have been announced by Health Minister H. G. Lawrence. The proposals have been made by the National Health Advisory Committee, appointed during the last session of parliament and a special T. B. division will be created in the public health department. The training of nurses and other assistants is to begin at once in existing T. B. hospitals and suitable military hospitals will be taken over and equipped. It is hoped that among those soon to be acquired will be the Springfield Military Hospital in Durban. In these hospitals mass radiography will be organized.

Mr. and Mrs. HOUSEHOLDER You can do it!

MONTREAL

"I had two rooms, one of which I fitted up as a bed-sitting room, and the other as a kitchen with a range for cooking. I made no effort to install special plumbing, using the water from the bathroom for kitchen needs. The young McGill University veteran and his wife to whom I rented this accommodation consider it a god-send." Mrs. A. E. H. ....

VANCOUVER

"My experience with a veteran tenant, a young officer from the Seaforth's, has been exceptionally good. He has settled back into a normal civilian life and invariably pays his rent two or three days in advance. The privacy of my home has not suffered." Herbert B. ....

CALGARY

"When the Citizens' Committee asked me if I could provide accommodation for a veteran and his wife, I hesitated, but the need was so urgent I finally was able to make three rooms available. Every month I put away the rent and am planning to re-equip my kitchen." Mrs. L. R. ....

TORONTO

"The attic in my home had never been finished but, when the housing emergency arose, I finished up this room very cheaply through the use of wall-board. It has provided a comfortable home for a veteran, his wife and their baby." B. W. ....

If you have hesitated about renting a part of your home, read these experiences of others who have patriotically responded to the call!

RENT LIVING SPACE TO VETERANS!

Now that winter is here veterans all over Canada are seeking accommodation for themselves and their families, while many homes have unoccupied space that would satisfactorily fill their needs. In this time of emergency, the goodwill of citizens who have such space can assist greatly in providing family accommodation for these young Canadians who ensured our freedom on battle fields all over the world.

Here are the things you can do to assist Canada's veterans:

1. Advertise your available accommodation in the newspapers.
2. List your space with your local branch of the Canadian Legion or other veterans' organizations, or list it with a real estate agent.

By doing this, you will assist in the rehabilitation of service men and you will receive regularly a fair rental for your premises.

LANDLORDS! - LANDLADIES!

All who regularly rent apartments, rooms and other accommodations are also asked to co-operate in this housing emergency. Give veterans and their families consideration BECAUSE THEY DESERVE IT!

A PATRIOTIC APPEAL

Because our fighting men volunteered for overseas duty and risked their lives to protect your home and your business, you have never been forced to billet troops or civilians either. Even now there is no compulsion. This is purely an appeal on the basis of patriotism and gratitude. Won't you help?

If you have space which you can make available, list it with the Citizens' Rehabilitation Committee, or the local branch of the Canadian Legion; advertise it in the newspapers or list it with a real estate agent.

Inquire at the nearest Rentals Office of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board about five months or less rental agreements. These are exempt from normal Wartime Prices and Trade Board non-eviction regulations, and five months tenancy will help many veterans through the winter.
