LONDON —Naval officers and men above the age of 17½ are no longer required to attend Sunday church services although encouraged to do so.

WALLY'S JEWEL CASE NOW EMPTY—Scotland Yard is in a dither because this jewel case is now empty. Fifty of its best operatives are working on the daring burglary which saw thieves decamp with the million dollar collection of gems of the Duchess of Windsor, which she housed in this case. The duchess is shown receiving the jewel case at ceremony when she was the governor's lady of the British West Indies—It's empty now. It was emptied by the nocturnal visitors who staged a "welcome home" party for the recently-returned duchess (while she was absent) at the secluded Ednam Lodge of the Duke of Dudley at Sunningdale in Berkshire county, England.

Timely TERRACE Topics

A fair number of parents were out at the schools on Monday, Visitors' Day, to observe teachers and pupils in action. The day was fine after the unusually wet, stormy week end.

Mrs. Hamilton and her mother, Mrs. A. Greenwood, spent the week-end in Prince Rupert.

Mrs. W. Carrigan returned on Saturday from Smithers where she has been receiving medical attention.

Miss June Warner left on Monday evening for Edmonton.

where she will attend the Bethel Bible Institute.

Word has been received that Mrs. E. Willie, who is now in Winnipeg, has undergone an operation and is making a favorable recovery.

The pottery kiln ordered by E. T. Kenney Ltd. for the Women's Institute has arrived but is in badly damaged condition. Repairs have been ordered.

C. Stanley-Rees of War Assets arrived Wednesday for a brief visit to Terrace.

Mrs. S. Campbell and Miss F. James were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower held Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Gordon Haugland, formerly Miss Joan Macdonald.

HALLOWE'EN QUIET BUT ENJOYABLE; SEVERE SNOWSTORM HITS DISTRICT

STEWART—The Stewart Parent-Teachers' Association held a Hallowe'en party in the Moose Hall last Wednesday. There were many games with apples, and plenty to eat so the youngsters had a wonderful time. The old-time Hallowe'en hand-out was missed and, as one youngster said, "The party was all right but I like the Handout." Some of the older boys would like to have staged something rougher but they were forestalled by a patrol which kept them on the dodge and caused considerable dissatisfaction in their ranks. It was a very happy and peaceful Hallowe'en and no one regretted the absence of the pranks except the few would-be pranksters.

Stewart was visited by a severe snowstorm last Saturday. Over two feet of snow fell and the provincial government snow plow went into action clearing the main thoroughfares and the Salmon River Road as far as the Silbak Premier Mine.

The Carolan picture show is now a regular feature showing on Wednesday and Saturday and fills a long felt want. The long trip to Premier and the attendant expense has been a deterrent to the movie fans.

Last Thursday the Haida Queen set out on her return flight to Prince Rupert but ran into a snowstorm near Georgia River. Forced to land on the water on account of poor visibility the plane had a partial crash owing to the altimeter having frozen. The tail was damaged and mechanic Peterson a Girl loves a nice Compact

We would like to tell you of the wonderful variety of new designs we have this Fall.

They are beautifully shaped in gold and silver colors and the engraved patterns are really artistic.

Some are enameled in lovely floral effects in combination with the hand engraving.

The prices vary with the quality and workmanship and run from as low as $1.85 up to the sterling silver at $15.00 to $20.00.

You really ought to see them.
