Smiles

Cy: "Have you tried many cases lately Judge?"

Judge Brewer: "Yes, but the stuff in 'em is terrible these days."

Mistress: "You know, I suspect my husband has a love affair with his stenographer."

Maid: "I don't believe it. You're only saying it to make me jealous."

Half the time while the man is thinking, "I wonder if I dare?" the woman is thinking, "I wonder why he doesn't?"

After office hours, Alf and Bert lingered in idle chat. Then with a sudden glance at his watch, Alf grabbed his hat. "I must rush off!" he exclaimed. "I've got an appointment."

"Who's the girl?" chaffed Bert. "Is it as important as all that?" "It is—and it's no girl. It's a fellow to whom I owe a favor." "Where are you meeting him?" "Meeting him nothing! He's coming here!"

She: "Here's a story of a man out west who bartered his wife for a horse. You wouldn't swap me for a horse, would you, darling?" He: "Of course not (pause) but I'd hate to have anyone tempt me with a good car."

WEEK-END CAR SERVICE HERE

Special Arrangements Made to Meet Requirements of Visiting Motorists in Emergencies.

The Motor Dealers' Association of Prince Rupert has come to an arrangement to meet the emergency requirements of week-end motorists with a Sunday afternoon service between the hours of 12 noon and 4 o'clock.

The service will consist of gasoline and oil sales and quick battery charge and tire repairs. Emergency repairs will be limited to such as are essential to enable a motor vehicle to operate on the highway if the time necessary to complete such repairs does not exceed one hour.

Mrs. Ed Evans, 109 Eighth Avenue West, is sailing Monday night on the Princess Adelaide for Vancouver on her way to Winnipeg where she will spend a three-months holiday visiting her parents.
