MY PUPPY

I have a little puppy, His ears are soft as silk. And every day at dinner time He drinks a bowl of milk.

He chews my daddy's slipper; I'm sure it must taste fine; My puppy's name is Nipper And he goes to bed at nine. I love my little puppy

No matter what he does; He's always full of mischief: That little ball of fuzz!

stituted against the offenders with regret as it had been felt and the board will look into the that the Civic Centre would have been the ideal location for the library. No action will be taken at present.

From the Prince Ladies' Reading Club has been received subscriptions for Canadian Bookseller, Theatre and Arts. and Canadian Art.

Telephone directories have been purchased from Seattle, Hamilton, London (Ont.) and Winnipeg telephone exchanges. There had been found a very great value by many users of the library.

The librarian's report for the month of April showed that, during the month the following books were in circulation: fiction, 881; non-fiction, 103; juvenile section, 291 and pay section 297. by such meetings between parmaking a total of 1,572. The total

P.-T. ASS'N

At the last meeting of the executive of the Prince Rupert Parent-Teachers' Association it was felt that the people of the city should be reminded of the past accomplishments of the organization.

The association is designed to afford the parents and others interested in education opportunities to meet with the teachers of the schools and discuss mutual problems. To this end, monthly meetings are held, the third Wednesday of each month being the regular date. Meetings are held in the schools or at the Civic Centre. Topics of mutual interest are considered at these meetings. Newest developments in educational practice are criticized. The reasons for and objections to methods are discussed and an alert education-consciousness is sustained. It is only coupons Your whim for a Sunday roast can be pleasingly catisfied by a rolled roast of veal. And it's not ration rashness to part with your two coupons of the week when you get in return three pounds of meat which will take care of at least three dinners, any will give you a quickee meal for Saturday and final-
