Reports On

Convention

Mrs. W. Robinson, delegate to the Red Cross convention held recently in Vancouver, presented her report. In a very interesting manner, she talked of the different matters which had been discussed at the convention. In this connection she spoke of the activities of the Red Cross at Shaughnessy Hospital, Vancouver, the Red Cross Lodge recently opened near the hospital, the heavy work done by the Red Cross during 1945, the present financial standing of the Red Cross, the need for larger self-contained administrative quarters in Vancouver, the function of the Red Cross in securing blood plasma and its uses, the interest taken by the Red Cross in nutrition, home nursing, first aid and the teaching of swimming to youngsters, the work of the Junior Red Cross. The aims of the Red Cross she summarized as better health, better welfare and happier living.

It was at a round table conference during the convention that Mrs. Robinson brought to the attention of Dr. Scott the need of a hospital at Terrace resulting in Dr. Scott's recent visit here to look into the situation.

While Mrs. Robinson was visiting the Red Cross Lodge, she visited Corporal Elliot Head who is at present a patient in Shaughnessy.

At the conclusion of her address, Mrs. Robinson was heartily applauded and thanked for her excellent work.

After the play interesting moving pictures of plywood were shown by M. L. Harper, followed by a short comic strip of community singing, in which the congregation joined.

During the intermission W. Skinner, rector's warden, on behalf of the congregation, presented Rev. and Mrs. Smith with a purse. An interval of dancing followed, after which refreshments were served by the Senior W. A.
