william Elkins | A Vote Arthur Bruce Brown for the Coquitlam School Trustee-parent, former to Vancouver. teacher, taxpayer. (290)

in who knows blems. VOTE ver sailed today on the Coquit- made by the Toc H group today (289) fam to return to her home in the south after spending the led this after- last two months in Prince Rupmultiam on his ert, visiting at the home of her home at Depart- son Martin F. Stuart, Eleventh ouver Island, after Avenue. visit to the city.

▲ Elio Furniture Store will be W. G. Pfeffer closed from Dec. 9th to January ternoon on the 5th, 1947. (d27) further treatment after hos-

r Victoria where nd the Christmas ng relatives. Mr. mber of the Bank ncements ents in this column ed for a full month 5c a word.

TOC H CONCERT PROCEEDS $136

The Toc H variety concert, held last Friday night in the Civic Centre auditorium, netted $136 which will be turned over to the Pioneers' Home fund, ac-Mrs. B. F. Stuart of Vancou- cording to an announcement > arrivais Prince Rupert

David Bone, Vancouver; A. Pat- ducted by Rev. Canon W. F.

Miss Mary Astoria of the city erson, Vancouver; A. B. Thomp- Rushbrook who has known the 'cashier's department had a let- son, Vancouver; H. L. Smart, bride all her life.

ter before the city council last Terrace; Mr. and Mrs. F. Mc- The bride, who was given in night expressing appreciation at Kort, Vancouver; Mrs. T. Jolly, marriage by her father, wore having been granted two months Miller Bay; L. F. May, Vancou- a pale blue suit with accessick leave. Miss Astoria is at ver; T. A. Eakins, Vancouver; sories to match. Her corsage present in Vancouver receiving Alex Watson, Mount Royal. was of blue roses.

Attending the bride was Mrs.

pitalization here but expects to JARROW, Eng. (P) - First of N. Hedrick who wore a bottle be back at her duties by Janu- four test bore holes for the Tyne green suit with accessories to

Married Yesterday Afternoon To Prairie Railwayman

at 1718 Atlin Avenue when Miss city. Elizabeth Scott, only daughter

(continued from page 1)

Fifteen Candidates

Hugo P. Kraupner assured the meeting that during his life in Prince Rupert he had been both an employee and an employer and that he would do his ut-A quiet but interesting wedding most to assist in the good govtook place yesterday afternoon ernment and development of the Alderman Robert McKay, board of Mr. and Mrs. David Scott, of Works chairman, told the became the bride of Ernest J. meeting that lack of finances Bitterman, third son of Mr. and had made large scale public Mrs. T. Bitterman of Melville, works programs impossible and Saskatchewan. Only a few in- that, without money, none could timate friends were present at be undertaken. He advocated a Peter Underhill, Vancouver; the ceremony which was con- scheme of financing which would meeting that he wanted to "safemake repair of services and utilities possible.

> Arthur Murray assured that he had decided to run because "I firmly believe you can't teach an old dog new tricks and I think the young man should be given a chance. "I am the most independent of the independent candidates.

the audience that he would do his best if elected. Gunnar Selvig declared that the city must get its streets in which would be used for rehabishape and urged that city coun- litation of those utilities." cil press the federal government T. B. Black, Mr. Brett's opfor compensation for wartime ponent for the one-year term, damage to the streets. The road was at the meeting but was to the Fairview fishermen's floats called away because of a power should be built at once, he said. failure and did not get an op-James Taylor told the meet- portunity to speak.

ing that he represented the Two-year aldermanic candi workers, and "I want to see date. W. D. Vance did not appear someone on city council to rep- at the meeting.

resent labor and the city in gen-

Do This For Acute William H. Brett, M.L.A., seeking a one-year term, assured the guard the advances made by re-cent city governments." While the early city councils "spent Put a few drops of Vicks Va-tro-nol money like drunken sailors," he up each nostril. It shrinks swollen said, "the recent councils had set aside reserve funds from the city utilities, the revenue of t

FOR . . .

Prince Rupert Daily Dews

Tuesday, December 10, 1946

ATT & ATT &

