BRITISH BRIDE IS HONORED

FRANCOIS LAKE—An English bride was warmly welcomed into this community when about 60 neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lord at the Tehesinkut Lake Auto Camp to honor Claude Lord's young English wife who recently rejoined her husband here. She reached Canada on the Aquitania.

Francois Lake Women's Institute arranged the surprise party and shower. Community singing, accompanied by Hugh Neave's guitar, led to songs by Pat Peebles, Hilary Partington, Robert Jeffery, W. E. Funnell, Verne Taylor, Mrs. Reg Partington, Neil Kelly and John Walker, and recitations by Mrs. James Jeffery, all climaxed by a hilariously funny skit on married life by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Deeder.

Mr. Deeder, on behalf of the Farmers' Institute, presented Tommy Gilgan's widow, Gladys, with a dressing gown and the little daughter with a toy.

Claude Lord and his bride were then presented with a prettily decorated box and tub full of parcels carried by Phyllis and Everett Jeffery, Mrs. Lee Cooper assisted with the unpacking of the numerous beautiful and useful gifts.

Mrs. Roy Lord served supper, assisted by members of the Institute, and quantities of sandwiches, loaf cakes and cookies were consumed.

Their new neighbor, Mrs. Lord, cut the bottom layer of a three-tier wedding cake. Each guest had a generous slice. After more singing the guests left at 1:30 a.m. for home.

Mrs. Turgeon has sold her rooming house property on Second Ave. near Second Street to Mrs. Sylvester and will be leaving early next month for Toronto to take up future residence. Her daughter, Miss Rita Turgeon, is to be married next month.
