General Manager Warren Giles of the Cincinnati Reds believes that the quality and quantity of Major League catchers has deteriorated seriously in the past five or six years. Although the Reds are strong on catching, Giles notes that fewer catchers are coming up to the big time. And he says those that are coming up are inferior to the crop which emerged from the minors in the thirties. Giles blames the Minor Leagues for the situation. He says that back in the late thirties, Major League teams would want to send young catchers back to the minors for more experience but were told: "Don't send us kid catchers. We need old timers."

Manager Johnny Ray insists that Billy Conn suffered only a very minor injury at his training camp the other day. Ray says that Conn, who meets Joe Louis for the heavyweight boxing title in June, will be back in the ring boxing on Sunday. According to Ray, Conn suffered a little nip in the fleshy part of the left thumb. Ray explained that the injury occurred when the scissors slipped as the tape was being cut from Conn's hands.

The first game of the Eastern Canada senior basketball championship series has been won by Assumption College of Windsor, Ontario. At Halifax Thursday night, the Collegiates had an easy time in defeating H.M.C.S. Stadacona to take a game lead in the best-of-three game series. The winner of the series will represent Eastern Canada in the Dominion final.

Buffalo Bisons Thursday night defeated Cleveland Barons 6 to 1 in the fifth game of the American Hockey League finals. The Barons hold a three to two edge in games in the best-of-seven series.
