Body of Indian Girl is Found in Ninth Avenue Shack Sunday

The body of an 18-year-old Indian girl was discovered by city police on a bed face downward with head into a pillow in a cabin at 208 Ninth Avenue East shortly after 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon where the girl died allegedly after a drinking party Saturday night, and two white men are in the city iail today charged with supplying liquor to Indians.

The dead girl is Ethel Shanoss, age 18, of Skeena Crossing. An inquest into her death is scheduled to begin at 2 p.m. tomorrow. Pending inquest, the police are not speculating on the cause of death.

XXXV, No. 35.

Held on charges of supplying liquor to Indians as a result of the alleged party are Robert Gordon Robinson, who occupies the cabin at the rear of 208 Ninth Avenue East. and John Wing.

The fourth member of the party, according to the police, was Effie Johnson, 17year-old native girl of Kitwanga.

At 2 o'clock p.m. Sunday Constables Anderson and Cowgill, in response to a call to the Ninth Avenue address, found the body of the Shanoss girl on a bed in the cabin. There were indications that she had been ill. A bruise was noticed on the forehead. Robinson, who was said to have made the call, was taken into custody a short time later. Dr. W. S. Kergin was called and pronounced the girl dead. The body was still warm but death had probably been a little time previous.

According to the police, the two girls had arrived in the city Saturday night from Port Edward on a C.N.R. way freight, and had met John Wing down town. They were taken to Robinson's cabin about 11 o'clock where they were joined a short time later by Robin-

The party was said to have consumed a quantity of gin before Wing left the place at 3 o'clock a.m. on Sunday. Robinson and the two girls stayed in the cabin.

According to the police, Robinson said that, when he and the Johnson girl awakened about noon Sunday, the Shanoss girl was An autopsy was held by Dr. R. E. Coleman last night, and Coroner M. M. Stephens has set 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon as for the inquest.

The dead girl's mother is said to be working at Port Edward.

RUSSIAN ELECTION

MOSCOW - Probably the largest election in history was held yesterday. A total vote of almost 110,000,000 was expected in the Russian version of a general election. Every Soviet citizen eighteen or over was eligible to vote for deputies to the Russian Parliament. That was only one issue -the continued leadership of the Communist Party and of Generalissimo Stalin. Only one political party, the Communist, took part in the election.
