NEW YORK (1)-The collaps of negotiations to end the most crippling bipping strike in the states history was followed today by a threat by the C.I.O. National Maritime Union to intensify the walkout in all ports and bring out thousands of pickets in a mass demonstration in New York.

Conferences between official of the N.M.U. and east coast and gulf coast operators were brok en off Sunday night when the operators said the discussions would be futile while the union coupled its demands with those of two west coast unions.

A union official termed the operators' action a "lockout."
