

Were You in Wallace's Last Week?

• Over one thousand thrifty Prince Rupert people were—buying nylons, ladies' panties, sweaters, children's underwear, cotton prints, white flannelette, broadcloth, curtains, monkscloth, coats and dresses. If you weren't here last week, you missed out on a lot of good things. This week we've got more—perhaps not the same things and perhaps other items that we didn't have last week. New items arrive every day. Come in and join the crowds—get your share of the bargains. Come see our large stock of desirable merchandise—all at prices as low as the largest cities in Canada, including Montreal and Vancouver.

Shop at Wallace's where you get the widest choice.

Shop at Wallace's where your dollars s-t-r-e-t-c-h.

Remember, these days it's not only smart to be thrifty — it's important.

Young Disgraceful Says Nonogenarian

TORONTO — Young people today are a "disgrace" because their parents haven't brought them up properly, and girls in restaurants "who puff at their smokes like men" are disgusting, says Mrs. Phoebe Woods of Toronto who has just celebrated her 99th birthday. "Where would some of the girls of today be if they had to take charge of a home? They wouldn't know what to do." She continued, "and when I was a girl no one would think of smoking cigarettes." Mrs. Woods has five children, two of whom live in Toronto, but she prefers to live in the Fern Oxley Home here because "I am very independent and having looked after myself for 99 years I'm not going to be a burden on my family now."
