After this date the law prescribes the death penalty for anyone convicted of illegal operations in foreign currency. The new money is backed partly by Hungarian gold now being returned to Budapest from the American zone Germany, where it was captured from the Germans. In top photo, a crowd forms in front of the bank to turn in their dollars for forints. The elderly gentleman, in lower photo, waiting his turn outside the bank, seems to be a bit reluctant to give up his American bills for the new money.

Have you ever stopped to consider how poor light may be responsible for poor marks in youngsters' school work? Inadequate light, improperly placed light or a brilliant glare can cause headache. Dark surroundings around a bright light can cause sleepiness. The result of either means inattention and lack of concentration. Check the lights in your house next time your children settle down to study.
