IS HONORED AT KITWANGA

Retiring after 25 years as postmaster at the Skeena River village of Kitwanga, J. A. Sampare was honored before his departure for Prince Rupert recently by a gathering of more than a score of pioneer friends who presented him with a leather club bag as a token of their esteem. Mr. Sampare intends to remain in Prince Rupert for a while and possibly go south later.

The presentation was made by T. E. Moore, pioneer Kitwanga rancher, and speeches were made by W. C. Little of Woodcock and Percy Andrews of Kitwanga. Mr. Sampare spoke in appreciation of the friendships he had made during his life at Kitwanga. The affair was held in the post office residence and was also featured by the welcome given to Mrs. Vernon Rowe who has succeeded Mr. Sampare to the post office position. The evening concluded with community singing and refreshments.

Returning Service Personnel Records Are Being Sought

The Daily News is anxious to completely record the arrival of all service men and women returning home from the war. Accordingly, it is requested that information be made available to this office regarding the date of arrival home, the service with which the veteran has been identified, in what theatres of war, if wounded, ill, etc. If inconvenient to call at the office, the information may be written or telephoned in. Pictures would be particularly welcome. Street and Postal addresses and telephone numbers are also requested.

MISS CROSS PRESIDENT

July Meeting of Prince Rupert Business and Professional Women's Club

Sixteen members of the Business and Professional Women's Club drove by car to Prudhomme Lake on Wednesday evening to hold their regular monthly meeting at Diana Lodge, summer camp of Mrs. J. Bolton, the club's honorary president. Following a delicious informal supper arranged by Mrs. Arnold and Mrs. Bolton, a brief business meeting was held. Miss Frances Cross was elected to the office of president, vacated by the resignation of Mrs. J. Bolton, who is leaving the city shortly. Miss Audrey Wrathall was elected treasurer succeeding Miss Jean McMillan, and Miss Kay Reid was elected vice-president succeeding Miss Frances Cross. The balance of the evening was enjoyably spent in boating on the lake and around the campfire which was later built on the beach.

THREE AT CHURCH PARADE
