George Stirnweiss Is Wanted—

CONNIE MACK LOOKS COVETOUSLY ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ AT YANKS; McCARTHY NONCHALANT

PHILADELPHIA (CP)—If the New York Yankees decide to unload some of their surplus infield talent, they will find one customer standing in line when the doors open. Connie Mack is exhibiting a lot of interest in the possibility of acquiring Yankee second baseman George Stirnweiss. And Connie, usually not too fast a man with the bank roll, says he's willing to, in his words, "go pretty strong" for last year's American League batting champ. But Connie hastily adds: "Not if they want one million dollars."

Outside of second base, the Athletics will present a strong front this year, with a pitching staff rated better than average.

However, Manager Joe McCarthy of the Yankees is not furnishing the venerable Athletics' leader with any encouragement. Queried in Panama on the possibility of sending holdout Stirnweiss to Philadelphia, Joe expressed his sentiments in these words: "You can bet all your dough that it sounds unlikely to happen."

SHORT SPORT

Heavyweight Joe Walcott of Camden, New Jersey, scored a stunning upset Monday night by taking a ten-round split decision from Jimmy Bivins in a rough bout in the Cleveland arena. Walcott floored Bivins for an eight-count in the seventh round and had the third-ranking heavyweight hanging on.

One member of the Brooklyn outfield holdout contingent has come to terms. Goody Rosen of Toronto, the top Toronto hitter of 1945, with an average of .325, has signed his contract. Still holding out are Dixie Walker, Luis Olmo and Pete Reiser.

Ray Mangrum of Los Angeles Monday won the 18-hole playoff for the Pensacola open golf title. He shot a four-under-par 68 to trim Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pennsylvania, by three strokes. Mangrum took the lead on the second hole when Hogan went one over par and the smooth-stroking Californian gradually drew away. Mangrum won five holes. Hogan took only two and they halved eleven.

Joe DiMaggio slashed four hits in four tries yesterday and led the New York Yankees to a 12 to 4 win over the Army All-Stars in Panama. Jolting Joe brought his spring average up to .526 with Monday's performance.

Jockey Don Padgett had himself a big day Monday. Padgett rode four mounts at Hialean race course at Miami and brought home as many winners—and three of them were long shots. Padgett booted home Lucky Roman in the second event, paying $50; Noonday Sun in the fourth, paying $9.40; Green Shed in the fifth, returning $36, and Light of Morn in the eighth, paying $23.10.

Victorious Over Gyros Last Night—Bo-Me-Hi Takes Macey's

Watts and Nickerson had a walk-away in the junior hoop league last night when they whipped Gyros in a game which ended 33-7. In the two intermediate games of the triple header, Bo-Me-Hi took Macey's for a score of 36-31 and Savoys swamped Co-op 47-21.

In the junior game the smooth-working Watts and Nickerson quintette seemed to be beyond stopping and marked up basket after basket with crisp regularity. In spite of Gyros' poor showing the game was fast. High scorer was Ole Skog with ten points.

Close calling by Referee Johnny Comadina brought out 32 fouls in the Bo-Me-Hi vs. Macey's game, the total being split evenly between the two teams. Macey's took the lead early but had fallen behind 7-3 by the end of the first quarter. The lead was then kept by the students until the final whistle. The game itself seemed to lack appeal to the fans who were expecting a faster showing from these two teams.

Dave Murray of Macey's was top scorer with eleven points, followed by Frank James and Ciccone of Bo-Me-Hi with ten apiece.

The Savoy-Co-op game was a walk-over for the Savoys who, sparked by Joe Davis, went out to win a 47-21 victory. Playing well below standard, the Co-op team failed to put up an effective opposition. Savoy led the scoring throughout the game. Davis was high scorer for Savoys with 20 points while Simondson, also of Savoy, racked up nine. Co-op's high man was Johnson with seven points.
