Soon to be presented to the Secretary General of UNO by Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King is the illuminated resolution, shown in the above photograph, which assures the adherence of the Fisheries Council of Canada to the charter of the United Nations. The resolution, which was signed by leaders of the fishing industry representing all parts of the Dominion, was accepted on behalf of the prime minister by Hon. H. Francis G. Bridges, Minister of Fisheries (right), from C. J. Morrow (left) of Lunenburg, N.S., retiring president of the Fisheries Council of Canada. The presentation was made at Ottawa during the council's first annual meeting.
