Whifflets
From The Waterfront

Cohoes are making their first appearance of the season in the salmon trolling areas contiguous to Prince Rupert, packers reporting that some boats are taking as much as 200 pounds a day. There has been a slackening off in the spring run during the past few days, it is reported.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. Ernest Sheppard, arrived in port at 7:15 last evening from the south, sailing at midnight for Stewart and other northern points whence she will return here tomorrow morning southbound. In addition to general coastwise travel, the Catala brought north another good-sized quota of round trip tourists.

From a regular fortnightly voyage to Massett Inlet points, Union steamer Cassiar, Capt. Lorne Godfrey, arrived in port at 4:30 yesterday afternoon and sailed at midnight for Vancouver via south Queen Charlotte Island points. The Cassiar took out from here to Island logging camps last night loggers who had arrived from Vancouver by train Saturday and on the Catala last night following the ending of the I. W. A. strike.
