BUFFALO STEAKS $1.75 PER POUND

MINNEAPOLIS — Buffalo meat—10,000 pounds—was bought up here in a few hours by meat-hungry residents. One man phoned 1,500 miles to have steaks put away for him but was refused. The bison steaks sold for $1.75 a pound; while buffalo burgers were cheaper at $1 a pound.

EXCOMMUNICATE YUGOSLAVS IN BISHOP'S TRIAL

VATICAN CITY, Italy — The Vatican has announced the excommunication of all Yugoslavs connected with the trial of Archbishop Alojzije Stepinic. The Archbishop was sentenced to 16 years imprisonment at forced labor after being found guilty of collaboration with the Axis.

A rupture between the Vatican and Yugoslavia may possibly result.

Several Italian newspapers interpreted the announcement of excommunication for all government officials of Catholic faith responsible for the trial and conviction at Zagreb included Marshal Tito, head of the Yugoslav government.

However, authoritative Vatican quarters said Tito's exact status was not known. It was not known if Tito is a Catholic.

FOUR LOSE LIVES OVER HOLIDAY

VANCOUVER, B.C.—Four persons met death in Vancouver and the adjacent area during the Thanksgiving week-end, including Lonnie Dell Mar-kell, 4, who suffocated in his crib while his parents were away.

Two met death in traffic accidents and a fisherman fell off his boat in the Pitt River and was drowned.

THE WEATHER

ROME—One hundred thousand Soviet troops are on large-scale manoeuvres near Vienna, Austria.

These manoeuvres are on the largest scale seen since the end of the war.

Open Conflict Between Russia and Western Bloc Forecast In High Places

Millions Between Paris and Berlin Scared By Spectre of War

PARIS (CP)—A dismal picture of the continent, scared by the spectre of another war was drawn today by Ross Munro, Canadian Press writer.

He reports that from Paris to Berlin, millions of people in Europe are seriously concerned over the possibility of war between the Russian group and western nations.

Scores of people, some in responsible positions, seem to accept the inevitability of war with the Soviet.

B.C. MAN ON WORLD FLIGHT

VANCOUVER—With as little concern as if he were purchasing street car tickets, a Vancouver businessman, Edward F. Gundry, fishing net manufacturer, stepped into the local Trans-Canada Air Lines' ticket office recently and picked up tickets that will take him around the world by air.

As far as is known it is the first trans-world air passage sold in Canada.

Mr. Gundry is well known in fishing circles in Prince Rupert and on the Skeena River, having visited here on business several times. He was a guest speaker at the Prince Rupert Rotary Club a few months ago.

Mr. Gundry's itinerary is studded with names made famous by the war. He left Saturday afternoon for San Francisco for the initial over-water hop to Honolulu. Then comes Canton Island, Suva, New Caledonia and Auckland. A few hours takes him to Sydney.

Baseball—

Brecheen Carried Off Field By Team Mates; Cards Win Games 4-3

ST. LOUIS—St. Louis Cardinals won the World Series today by a 4-3 victory over the Boston Red Sox to send home-town fans into a frenzy.

Cards, behind the sparkling performance of Harry Brecheen on the mound, chalked up a second win in two days over the Sox to end the series 4 games to 3.

Brecheen "The Cat" was in top form, despite his heavy and successful pitching duties yesterday.

Disorders Flair In Eastern Bengal

BOMBAY, India — Disorders over Moslem and Hindu differences have occurred in Eastern Bengal.

India's post-war army has been formed, with three native brigades, one brigade of frontier troops and one of British paratroops.

Thus Brecheen joined eight other pitching greats with three decisions in fall classic, first since 1920.

A huge throng of 36,143 fans practically mobbed crafty left hander as final out was recorded to give the Red Birds upset victory over the favored American champions.

In thrill packed finale Cards pulled it out of fire with an eight-inning run engineered by Enos Slaughter's daring base running, run that meant $3,736.45 to each of underdog Red Birds.

After the teams traded runs in first and second innings, Sox scored first and Birds tying it up in second, St. Louis apparently put the game in ice box with two-run outburst in fifth that sent Dave (Boo) Ferris to early shower.

Boston 100 020 020—3 8 0
St. Louis 010 020 01x—4 9 1

HANGING NAZI RINGLEADERS AT NUERNBERG PRISON TODAY

Only Alfred Rosenberg Refuses to Return to Religion For Solace

NUERNBERG —Official reports circulated today said that hangings of the 11 condemned Nazi ringleaders would begin in Nuernberg prison yard at 12:01 a.m. Wednesday (3:01 p.m. P.S.T. Tuesday).

Previously it had been expected that the executions would start at dawn.

Executions are expected to take about three hours altogether.

The Four Power Commission made it plain there would be no official announcement until after the last man had gone to the scaffold.

Ten of the condemned men returned to religion today for solace, but the eleventh, Alfred Rosenberg, philosopher of the Nazi party, refused to see a chaplain or study the Bible.

Hermann Goering told prison doctors he had no fear of death, indicating he intended to try to show dignity until the very last moment.

Hermann Goering and other high-ranking officials of Hitler's war staff are convinced their Fuehrer is dead. Hitler had done so far, they said, that death was preferable to being caught.

However, it lost the other two key seats on the Teen Town administration set-up to the previous "Old" party incumbents, when Miss Mickey Murray was returned as City Clerk and Bob McChesney retained his authority as Police Chief.

Closing of the polls in the Civic Centre at 10 o'clock Saturday night, terminated the liveliest political campaign in Teen Town's brief history. Culminating a 10-day electioneering spasm in which radio speeches and bill posters proclaimed the fitness of the candidates, a total of 291 voters cast ballots.

Here is the final voting box score:

For Mayor
Reg Lavigne, "New" Party	150
Mel Thompson, "Old" party	141
For City Clerk
Miss Mickey Murray "Old"	170
Miss Nina Youngman "New"	115
For Police Chief
Bob McChesney "Old"	199
Ole Skog "New"	87
