TERRACE SCHOOL DISTRICT MEET; MANY ATTEND GEO. GLASS FUNERAL

The annual meeting of the ratepayers of Terrace School District was held in the Terrace Elementary School on Thursday evening with Floyd Frank as acting chairman. C. W. Alger was secretary. With a fair crowd in attendance, an interesting discussion took place regarding the Cameron Report. Trustees elected were C. N. Michiel, C. Adams and Mrs. Fred Hall.

The funeral of the late George E. Glass was held from the Pentecostal Church on Friday morning with Rev. G. V. Graham in charge. The church was filled with friends of the deceased who came to pay their last respects. The many floral wreaths bore evidence to the esteem in which Mr. Glass was held in the community. Vernon Glass, the eldest son, with his wife and family came from Smithers to be present. Another son, Frank, had arrived from Victoria. Interment took place at Kalum Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kerr, recently married, arrived Tuesday night from Vancouver and are at present staying with Mr. and Mrs. George Dover on Lakelse Avenue.

Ill-Fitting Teeth Bring On Headache

SYDNEY, Australia.—Badly-fitting dentures may be the cause of many inexplicable headaches, Dr. James Bell of Perth says. He says ill-fitting false teeth can cause buzzing in the ears, dizzy spells, painful jaw movements, burning and prickling of the tongue, metallic taste and dryness of the mouth.

MOOSE HEAD WELCOMED ON VISIT HERE

Prince Rupert Lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, was astir with week-end activity during the visit of Carl A. Weis, deputy supreme secretary of the Supreme Lodge of the order, and of more than a score of lodge members from Ketchikan, who made a special trip here to take part in initiation ceremonies and social activities connected with Mr. Weis's visit.

Arriving here on Saturday night's train, Mr. Weis met informally with the local lodge and the Ketchikan delegation that evening. On Sunday afternoon he was speaker at a public meeting held in the Civic Centre, then presided at initiation ceremonies at which 15 new members were inducted into the Prince Rupert Lodge.

The Saturday night function was an informal gathering which welcomed the Ketchikan delegation and, during its latter part, greeted Mr. Weis, who is on a tour of Alaskan lodges from his headquarters at Mooseheart, Indiana. The gathering enjoyed refreshments prepared by the Women of the Moose.

Three Hundred Hear Discourse

Sunday afternoon, more than 300 people, mostly lodge members, heard Mr. Weis outline the objects of the Moose fraternity in a 20-minute speech, then saw a talking film which showed the day-by-day workings of Mooseheart, the home for children of deceased Mooseheart members.

Mr. Weis outlined the development of the Moose fraternal movement since it was founded in 1838 at Louisville, Kentucky, attributing its growth to the benefits which its members enjoy.

The organization, he said, offers benefits which relieve fear of economic jeopardy due to sickness or unemployment, family destitution due to a member's death; economic dependency due to old age, and finally, allows a feeling of comradeship for members in any part of Canada and the United States where a member might travel, due to the far-flung nature of the order.

Mr. Weis was introduced to the audience by Mayor H. M. Daggett, who welcomed the visiting Moose leader, and also the Ketchikan delegation. Mayor Dag-

Non-Profit Meals Pay County Fair

MIDDLE MUSQUODOBOIT, N.S.—It still holds: the way to a man's heart (and pocket-book) is through his stomach. George Dickey, manager of the Halifax County Exhibition, revealed here how he realized a profit this fall from the fair, the first time in its 38-year history there has been a surplus.

Explained Mr. Dickey: "We have a dining room on the fair grounds and we give a good meal, even though we don't make any money on it. It pays in the long run."

Attendance figures backed him up. Second day of the fair more than 5,000 persons saw the show at Middle Musquodoboit, which is about 35 miles northeast of Halifax and has a population of less than 200. Net profit? About $2,000.

Students Must Train In United Provinces

NEW DELHI.—Compulsory military training for university students in the United Provinces has been ordered by Premier Pandit Govind Ballabh Pant. He stressed, however, that the government was not trying to prepare young men for world domination or aggression. The object was rather to revive discipline among the youth of the country. One year's intensive social service work will also be compulsory and no student will be allowed to enter university or any government service until he has completed this term. This training will be practical, enabling students to live in villages and with laborers to study their conditions and try to improve them.

The Ketchikan delegation, which arrived Saturday evening on the vessel Catalvst, Capt. Fred McKay, sailed early this morning to return to the Alaska city. With them went Mr. Weis, who will make a tour of the Alaska lodges. The delegation consisted of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Eames, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. NEW OIL MANAGER

To provide for a steadily increasing volume of operations throughout the northwestern section of the province, Standard Oil Company of British Columbia Limited announces the establishment of a new sales branch to be known as its Prince Rupert branch. Stanley M. Cameron has been named branch manager for this district with headquarters at Prince Rupert. His territory, which will extend from Bella Coola north to Stewart, including the Queen Charlotte Islands, and east along the Canadian National line to Houston, was formerly administered from Vancouver. Standard's plant at Prince Rupert will continue to be operated by N. R. (Bert) Young.

Mr. Cameron, who started with Standard of B.C. in 1940 as a service station salesman, is no newcomer to this city, having been employed at the Prince Rupert plant during the peak of the war activity in 1943 and 1944. He arrived here on November 14 to assume his new duties.
