

UGANDA AND CRESCENT ON VISIT HERE

That companionable pair of warships, H.M.C.S. Uganda and Crescent, slid into Prince Rupert harbor at 9 o'clock this morning for their second joint visit here this summer, this time southbound from a training cruise to the Aleutian Islands which included stops at Dutch Harbor and at Juneau, the Alaskan capital.

Obviously keen to reciprocate the city's hospitality, the complements of the two vessels tonight plan to present a stage show in the Civic Centre Auditorium and on Monday night will be hosts to the citizens at a dance in the Civic Centre.

Uganda, the 11,000-ton Mauritian class cruiser, is under command of Capt. K. F. Adams, who skippered her on her last visit here late in July. Crescent, a sleek destroyer, is skippered by Lieut. Commander P. C. Nixon.

Uganda carries a complement of some 500 officers and men while Crescent's crew is more than 100.

Entertainment planned for the men of the two vessels, which will leave Tuesday morning to return to Esquimalt, includes a football game at Roosevelt Park tomorrow afternoon, and a box lacrosse game Saturday evening. Sunday's schedule contains plans for a fastball game between the sailors and local players at Gyro Park, while on Monday evening there will be a gymnastic display by Rup-Rec leaders, and a second box lacrosse game at Roosevelt Park gymnasium.

There has been no boxing card arranged for the present visit of the two vessels.

In stressing the importance of freedom of the press, Prime Minister Attlee said: "No true interest of ordinary people of the world was ever hampered by letting the truth be known."

OFFICE CLOTHING IN FASHION SHOW

A fashion show of styles for office wear was held Thursday evening by Mrs. B. Hill, presenting models attired in appropriate dress for business wear. Costumes were provided by Wallace's store. Commentator was Mrs. M. Strachan, and the models were the Misses Carol Bradley, Joan Petersen, Eileen Feasby and Mrs. Franklin. Musical background was provided with records loaned by McRae Bros. The floral setting of the room was set by a large bouquet donated by Miss Mary Armstrong and a lovely plant loaned by Mrs. Martin. An interesting effect was created by a number of paintings of bird life by Allan Brooks, loaned by Miss Joyce Leslie.

Former Secretary of State, Cordell Hull, once said: "I have consistently supported the cause of freedom of news, and I will support any practical measure to give international recognition to this principle."

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Barber left yesterday for a trip to Prince George. Mr. Barber having driven from here to be joined by her husband at Terrace.

Miss Muriel Page of Vancouver, who has been visiting here for the past week with Mrs. Alex McRae, left last night by the Prince Rupert on her return home.
