Aussie Legislators Strong On Metaphors

CANBERRA, (CP) — Metaphors ran wild in the Australian House of Representatives one day recently during debates on housing and the price of ice cream.

Housing Minister H. P. Lazzarini—"Housing is a political football which the opposition is trying to kick around the country to catch a few more votes. . . They will find it is a cock that won't fight at the elections."

Country Party Leader Arthur Fadden—"I am prepared to table the letters on the floor of the House."

Labor Member H. C. Barnard from Tasmania—"The ice cream company is robbing the kids to feed the fatted calf."

SEA CADETS ARE LAUDED

Inspecting Officer is Well Pleased with Local Corps

"I want to take the opportunity to congratulate you all on your showing tonight. Your neat appearance and smart drill would be a credit to any unit." So said Lieutenant-Commander H. Grant, R.C.N. (R), at the conclusion of the annual inspection of the Captain Cook Corps of the Royal Canadian Sea Cadets last evening in the Navy Drill Hall.

The schedule had begun with the inspection of the corps in the hall. The guard with rifles, the divisions, the wrennettes, the band, had all been closely inspected. Then followed the march past, the reviewing officer taking his stand on the Court House steps, accompanied by Lieutenant-Commander Eddy and Lieutenant A. S. Mitchell officer commanding the local corps. The later stages of the inspection included observation of groups taking seamanship, boat pulling and sailing, lead and line; a squad on the rifle range under Instructor Theo M. Fortune, signalling including semaphore and wireless, and the band. Also included was a showing of moving pictures with the assistance of M. R. Harper, the films being one on anchors and cables and a health one on "Water, Friend or Enemy," a Walt Disney production.

There was a large number of parents and friends with quite a good number of ex-sea cadets on hand. The showing of the corps was very impressive steady on parade and smart in their movements. Commander Grant referred especially to the wrennette division. The wrens had established a splendid record during the recent war and the local Wrennettes were certainly upholding that fine record. The marching, countermarching and playing of the bugle band were exceptionally good. He hoped that all cadets would be able to attend the camp to be held at Gambier Island. This camp belonged to the Sea Cadet Corps and, speaking from his own experience, he was sure there could be no finer one. He looked forward to seeing the Prince Rupert Cadet Corps doing very well at camp and hoped that they would be able to show interior units how boats should be rowed or sailed.

In charge of the corps under their commanding officer Lieutenant A. S. Mitchell were Lieutenant E. John Wilson, executive officer; Lieutenant Walter Smith, training officer; Lieutenant Ned Tobey, paymaster and Midshipmen James, Mel Thompson and W. Cruickshank with Petty Officer L. Barbe in charge of the Wrennette division.

Following the remarks of the inspecting officer the very impressive ceremony—sunset—was carried out with fine precision.

NEW WATCH TESTING DEVICE IN RUPERT

John Bulger Ltd. have just purchased one of the new electronic watch testing machines developed by the Bell Telephone Co. of New York and made by the Western Electric Co. This is the second instrument of this kind to come to B.C., the other being in Victoria.

Designed to take the guesswork out of the watch business, it operates by amplifying the beats or ticks of a watch until they are strong enough to print a record. Each variation in performance makes a different picture on a chart, making it a simple matter to know when a watch is perfect.

It is expected this will be a great help to customers in buying a new watch as all new watches are to be tested before going out. *122

Extras for "Emperor Waltz" Chosen at Vancouver—Advance Party Arrives

JASPER PARK— Heading an advance party of 14 Paramount Studio officials, Charles Brackett and Billy Wilder, the script-writing team that turned out the Academy-Award winning picture "The Lost Week-end," arrived here in a special C.N.R. car yesterday from Hollywood.

The advance party are making final preparations for the shooting in Jasper National Park of outdoor sequences for the $6,000,000 technicolor film "The Emperor Waltz," musical comedy starring Bing Crosby and Joan Fontaine. The main company of 130 persons, in addition to several trained animals, arrive here by special train May 28, with shooting scheduled to commence the following day.

While in Vancouver yesterday, Brackett and Wilder selected 15 residents of the city to take part in the picture. After a test performance, the Vancouverites were signed up to do Tyrolean folk dances in the film. They will leave for Jasper next week.
