AERO CLUB TO START DRIVE FOR MEMBERS

Plans for a large scale, city-wide membership drive for the newly organized Prince Rupert Aero Club were formulated yesterday afternoon during a special meeting of the executive, George H. Stanbridge, president, was in the chair.

It was decided a life membership in the Aero Club would be $100, which could be paid in full or quarterly. A sustaining membership would cost $25 plus $5 per year membership fee. A non-sustaining membership would be sold at a lower rate but this type of membership would give the member no vote in the operation of the club.

In view of the widespread interest in the organization ground school courses will commence at the earliest possible date. This will include lectures on flight theory, aircraft technique and meteorology. In charge of ground school instruction will be Bob Kelsey. He will be assisted by Doug Stewart, Cedric Mah and Harry Astoria.

Mr. Stanbridge also pointed out that, whenever possible, pilots, co-pilots and aerial engineers would be asked to address the school as guest speakers.

It was decided the first instructional meeting would be held in the Civic Centre next Friday at 7 p.m.

A motion by Hugo Kraupner, director, to the effect that only paid-up members would be allowed to vote at the next general meeting was passed unanimously.

A decision as to whether the local club will join the Royal Canadian Flying Clubs Association will be made at a later date. E. R. Carswell, aviation expert of Standard Oil Company, told the executive of the many advantages the club would receive in belonging to this organization.

A membership committee under the chairmanship of J. Harry Black was appointed. Members of this committee are G. H. Stanbridge, Earl Gordon, Bert Young, Cedric Mah, Fred Jensen, Bob Kelsey, Hugo Kraupner, Jarvis McLeod, O.B.E., and William Watts.

Jarvis McLeod was appointed chairman of the finance committee.

Better English
By D. C. WILLIAMS

1. What is wrong with this sentence? "What business have they to interfere?"
2. What is the correct pronunciation of "naphtha"?
3. Which one of these words is misspelled? Appear, adhear, arrear, linear.
4. What does the word "derelict" (noun) mean?
5. What word beginning with ex means "roomy"?

ANSWERS
1. Say, "What right have they."
2. Pronounce naf-tha, first a as in "at", final a as in "ask", and not naph-tha.
3. Adhere. 4. A person abandoned, or without the pale of respectable society. "There is not a derelict of the streets, in whose heart there is not some good."
5. Expansive.

NAVAL CUSTOMS AND TRADITIONS No. 7

THE WHISTLING COOK — Whistling in a man-of-war has always been strongly discouraged for obvious reasons. Custom ordains, however, that the Cook of the Mess shall whistle when stoning plums or prunes to mix in duff. This proves he is not stowing his own hold at the expense of his messmates!
