A little controversy developed over the short period the younger members of the local team were allowed to show themselves and it seems that the public is to get their wish and Boyo Gurvich, Mel Holkestad and Joe Davis will see their share of action with the rest of them tonight.

Many would like to see a little more enthusiasm shown by "Foot" James in tonight's game. He was sadly off last night in every sense of the word and seemed to be taking a very unconcerned view of the play in general. This team is getting more support than any High School team in the history of the city and the customers always demand the best.
