Enrolment is Very Uncertain

No Guesses Being Made About Number of Pupils at School—Teaching Staffs

There has been such a turnover in population in Prince Rupert during the summer that Mrs. M. Roper, secretary of the board of school trustees, was reluctant to even hazard a guess as to how many pupils may be enrolled in the city schools when classes resume next Tuesday after the long summer vacation. This week-end will mark the mass return to the city of teachers and pupils from their holidays. Some are already back.

As for the local teaching staff, only one vacancy remains to be filled, this at the Junior High School.

EARLY DAYS OF SMITHERS FAIR

Are Recalled With Renewal of Popular Event at Smithers

SMITHERS (Special to Daily News)—The current holding of the nineteenth annual Bulkley Valley Fair recalls the early days of this well instituted event.

The first Fair of this kind was held in Smithers in 1919 when livestock exhibits rated extremely high.

In 1923 race horses were added to the Fair and blooded stock, some with "Man-o-War" ancestry, took part, making the Bulkley Valley Derby a popular attraction.

There was difficulty in financing in 1927 but the Department of Agriculture appropriated $2,000 for the work and the Association was able to carry on.

During the recent war the Fair was shelved from 1938 to 1944. Last year it was resumed and a successful Fair held.

Among the old timers who helped to organize the original Smithers Fair were J. C. K. Sealy, A. C. Kilpatrick, George Oulton, J. W. Turner, Stephen H. Hoskins, James Owens and E. E. Orchard. Today the sons of some of these men are carrying on the tradition.

The Fair, following the judging and official opening yesterday, continues in full swing.

Feature events last ngiht included a bathing beauty contest, midway dance and fireworks display.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. What are the most important things to observe when setting the dinner table?

A. Two of the most important things are that the centrepiece be placed exactly in the centre, and that the chairs of the guests are exactly opposite each other.

Q. What is the best way for a young girl to acquire self-control in public?

A. Probably the best way is contact with older people, who have already acquired a proper perspective.

Q. In what way should one extend an invitation for a motor drive?

A. This invitation is usually given verbally or by telephone.
