Fears Increase of Tax In Appraisal

A. C. Abott, Eleventh Street, had a lengthy letter before the city council last night attempting to forestall any move that might be made to increase the taxes on his residential property as a result of the re-appraisal of property which expert George LaFleche of Vancouver has been conducting for the city council.

Mr. Abott told of his vicissitudes as a property owner for 20 years, referred to lack of services and claimed that, instead of any increase in taxes, he was entitled to a one-third reduction. It was left to the city clerk to answer the communication.

Ald. George Hills, chairman of the finance committee, made it clear that the appraisal had been conducted not for assessment raising but for equalization purposes.

"TEXTILES?" says Mrs. Boffs, "I Need Sheets!"
... and her husband needs shirts! And the children need underwear!
Why is there still a shortage?
Part of the answer is that Canadians have more money to spend. Then, too, there are the returned service men, many of them starting or re-establishing homes of their own.
Another part of the answer is that many Canadian industries which use cotton in their products are again gathering momentum on civilian supplies and are building up their working inventories. Meanwhile our 10,000 workers are doing their utmost to catch up on both civilian and industrial demands.
As long as the present tremendous demands and relative shortages continue, we shall go on distributing our products on a quota basis.
