Pioneer Girl is Beautiful Bride

Miss Alma Dybhavn, Prince Rupert-Born Girl, and Winnipeg Man Are United

One of the best known and ▲ Long trips or short, day or most popular Prince Rupertborn girls and member of an esteemed pioneer family became James Hutchison left on last the bride of a young Winnipeg railwayman, who served in the Navy with H.M.C.S. Chatham during the war, at a highly interesting marriage ceremony late Friday afternoon. The bride was Alma Helene Dybhavn, only tleman." daughter of Mrs. John Dybhavn, 2104 Atlin Avenue, and the groom William Michalozuk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michalozuk of Winnipeg.

The wedding took place quietly in the chapel of the Pro-Cath-Rev. Father Carroll officiating with only the bridal party and George Murray. immediate relatives present. A reception was later held at the home of the bride's mother where many friends gathered to extend their best wishes and congratulations before the couple left by the evening train for Winnipeg where they will make their home.

The groomsman was George Dybhavn, brother of the bride. The spacious living room of the bride's mother in Westview was the scene of the reception. Rooms were attractively decorated with midsummer flowers, featuring many lovely roses, by Mrs. Laura Mitchell. The couple received felicitations before an elaborate bank of honeysuckles and foliage at one end of the long room. To Spray Forests Of This Province

TORONTO (P) - Ontario government officials said today that a giant Canso aircraft is enroute to British Columbia to spray forests being ravaged by hemlock loopers described as the most serious insect plague to the forests in a generation.

The plane has been combatting spruce budworm plague in Ontario but it is felt that there is greater need for it in British Columbia.
