JASPER VISIT Courtesy S. D. Johnston Co. Ltd PLEASED HIM ^^^

Could Have Spent Two

Months at Resort, Says Monty JASPER PARK - "Only two days. One really needs two months." This was the parting message of Field Marshall Vis-.123/4 | count Montgomery to those who gathered on Saturday afternoon to bid him au revoir on the conclusion of his visit to Jasper Park Lodge. It was a day of cloudless sky and bright sunshine with the peaks snow-capped against a blue background. From early in the morning Viscount Montgomery had been on the golf course following the 36-hole final in the Jasper Totem Pole tournament and the time had come for him to resume the program of visits to Canadian and United States cities.

> At night from Edmonton Lord Montgomery sent back the following message: "Please convey to Carl Haymond my congratulations on his victory in the Jasper Park Totem Pole golf tournament and tell him I was greatly impressed by his play. Also please give my best wishes to Mr. Cleat, runner-up, for better luck next time-Montgomery of Ala-Lord Montgomery is receiving
