WOULD SKATE AGAIN

Editor,
Daily News:

With the winter season coming on I wonder if any local organizations have considered a popular sport which, even though we don't get much of, when we do a large percentage of our population, both young and old, take full advantage of it—namely, ice skating.

Up until a few years ago Morse Creek was one of the popular spots for this sport and some local organizations participated in the maintenance of the dam.

During the war, however, the surrounding area was required by the Department of National Defence and naturally enough was out of bounds.

Now, the war has been over for a year and as yet there seems to be no signs of the pond being available if we have ice this year.

Last season when we did have a freezing spell and the local youngsters began to enjoy a bit of skating someone figured they shouldn't be there so the gates were opened, the water ran out and the ice broke up.

During the summer when the kids looked forward to a little swimming the gates were again opened and the only swimming hole left was a narrow creek surrounded by a lot of dirty, unsanitary mud.

Now, maybe there is a good reason for all this but would there be any harm for any local organization to approach someone in authority and find out if the pond could be put in shape for the coming season?

This would be a great favor not only to the youngsters of the community but to a lot of the older folks who enjoy a few hours skating once in a while.

AMATEUR SKATER.

OKANAGAN SMILES AS GYRO APPLE DAY PUSHES UP FRUIT SALES HERE

That rosy blush apparent on Third Avenue this morning might have had something to do with the shining dawn or it might have been caused by the glisten of silver coins reflected from the glowing skins of bright, red apples. It was Gyro Club Apple Day downtown.

On five downtown corners, crews of sales-conscious Gyros stood behind stacked boxes of Okanagan's best, nawking the apples to passersby in order to raise funds for the maintenance and improvement of the Gyro playgrounds in the city.

The city's medical practitioners must have looked with a slight touch of gloom at so many apples being munched publicly. How many doctors were kept away for how many days is a statistical mystery.

The apple onslaught was abetted by a dozen youngsters who acted as roving sales personnel, selling the apples to people who did not come quite close enough to the corner stands to be caught by the alert Gyros.

Apple Day committee chairman Dave Allen had briefed his salesmen well, for they were selling them by the box as well as singly.

Gyros at the various stands were:

N. B. C. Power Co. corner—Lloyd Morris, Alf Rivett, Frank Dobb, G. A. Hunter.

Watts & Nickerson corner—Charles Mills, Arnold Flaten, James Parker.

Post Office—Charles Balagno, Frank Skinner, Don Forward.

Klien Hardware—Elmer Calusen, Allan Armstrong, A. Shear-down.

Wallace Corner—Clifford Ham,

Hallowe'en Masque At St. Peter's Hall

A gay Hallowe'en masquerade party was held last evening by the St. Peter's Young People's Association in the gaily decorated St. Peter's Hall. Clowns and cowboys, Hallowe'en ghosts and pussy cats, Hindus and Scottish lassies formed a grand march which opened the festivities. Prizes were presented to the two best costumes—Shirley Tremear and Ralph Overgaard. Games and dancing continued until just before supper time. To choose partners for supper, boys ducked for numbered apples in one tub and girls in another. Those who came up holding apples with the same number shared together the attractive basket lunches prepared by the girls. After supper, dancing continued until midnight.

when you know how

Maybe you are one of the more than three million Canadians who bought Victory Bonds. Perhaps you paid for them on the instalment plan and were delighted to see how quickly—and easily—you accumulated a backlog of savings which gave you a new feeling of pride and assurance. Perhaps you bought them for cash. You were pleased to see how the interest mounted up—how these bonds made money for you, year after year.

Yes, it's easy when you know how!

If you were a Victory Bond buyer, we don't have to tell you that the new Canada Savings Bonds present an opportunity for saving and investment that's too good to miss. If you haven't already discovered how easy and convenient it is to save by means of bonds, now is the time to make a start—to stop wondering how other people manage to put away a nest egg, and start accumulating one of your own.

You can buy Canada Savings Bonds in units of $50, $100, $500 and $1,000, through any bank, authorized investment dealer, stock broker, trust or loan company—for cash or by the monthly Savings Plan. Where your employer offers a Payroll Savings Plan you can buy Canada Savings Bonds by regular deductions from your pay. You may buy up to $2,000 per person. They pay 2 3/4% interest each year for 10 years. Your bonds will be registered in your own name, providing protection against loss. You can cash Canada Savings Bonds at full face value, with interest, any time at any branch in Canada of any chartered bank.

But please remember this point—these are "Serve Yourself" Bonds. This time there are fewer salesmen. They will not be able to call on everyone. So it's up to you to take advantage of this fine investment opportunity—without delay!
