New Coastal Liner Coquitlam Due November 10—New Missionary For Thomas Crosby

Long-deferred maiden voyage call at Prince Rupert of the Union Steamship Co.'s new coastal liner for the Vancouver-Prince Rupert-Stewart service—the Coquitlam, converted Castle Class corvette—is now set for November 10. She will take the place of the steamer Catala which is being withdrawn from that run to undergo annual overhaul and inspection and to relieve the steamer Cardena on the Vancouver-Skeena River-Prince Rupert route. Later, it is expected the Coquitlam will make some special pre-Christmas voyages between Vancouver and Prince Rupert. Another of the Union Steamship Co.'s converted corvettes—the Camosun—has just had her trial runs at Vancouver and should be seen in the course of the next few weeks on the Queen Charlotte Islands run in place of the veteran Cassiar.

Rev. Peter Kelly, veteran skipper-missionary of the United Church mission boat Thomas Crosby, is getting an understudy in the person of Rev. R. W. Henderson of Burns Lake who is joining the Crosby here this week-end. The Crosby has been at Prince Rupert during the past week during the fall session of the Prince Rupert Presbytery and will proceed this week-end to Port Essington where Mr. Kelly will conduct Sunday services, leaving at the first of next week for her base at Ocean Falls. Travelling south from here on the Crosby will be Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Cantelon of Hartley Bay, returning to their missionary post there following the Presbytery.

On her regular fortnightly voyage on the Queen Charlotte Islands service, Union steamer Cassiar, Capt. Lorne Godfrey, arrived in port at 7:45 yesterday morning from Vancouver via south Island points and left at 6 o'clock this morning for Massett Inlet whence she will return here tomorrow to sail at midnight on her return south by way of the south islands.

Union steamer Cardena, Capt. John Boden, arrived in port at 4:45 o'clock this morning from the south and sailed at 9 a.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

Three fish-carrying vessels have been in port overnight from Ketchikan with frozen halibut and salmon for transshipment East over Canadian National Railways. They are the Sidney, which early this morning had completed discharging four carloads, and the Northern Queen and Kenmore which were in this morning.

ONLY SINGLE LACROSSE GAME

Last night's scheduled double-header lacrosse bill suffered a slight case of decapitation, ending up with only one scheduled game followed by a pick-up encounter when one of the senior teams failed to turn up.

The junior game, played between Canadian Legion and Merchants, resulted in a 5-3 score for Legion while the senior game was called off when the Merchants failed to field a team against the Legion. To fill in the time, the Legion seniors played a pick-up team from among the juniors.

Only a small crowd was in attendance at the Roosevelt Park gym.
