TIGERS WIN FIRST GAME

Calgary Stampeders Lost Three to One Last Night in Allan Cup Series

SASKATOON, ( - Hamilton Tigers defeated Calgary Stampeders 3 to 1 last night for their first victory in the best of seven Allan Cup hockey series. Calgary won the first three games. The fifth game will be played in Edmonton.

Brought to Australia by the early English settlers, cricket now is the national sport of Australia. Racing and football have their followers but neither sport has the universal appeal of cricket, which is taught to the Australian as soon as he starts school and which he follows through life either as player or spectator. As a player, he can join one of the thousand clubs and perhaps eventually he can tralia and England. try in the game. As a spectator, in England or Australia every he has a choice of club, state or five years. Barracking reached its peak in Australia and England.

The interest in cricket is infirls play it and their fathers, others watch it. Families stay ip all night when the tests are being played in England to listen o the broadcasts. From the Govrnor-General, the Duke of Houcester, and Prime Minister 3en Chifley down, every Ausralian has played it, and poliicians forsake parliaments and boys their school lessons to vatch a big game. Idol of the Australians is an Adelaide stockroker, Don Bradman, hailed as he greatest cricket player Australia has ever produced. He has made more centuries than any other Australian batsman and has often saved Australia from defeat by England with his pro-
