CASH PRIZES FOR SLOGANS

Contest Being Staged by Public Relations Council And Daily News

The Prince Rupert Public Relations Council, with the co-operation of the Daily News, is putting on a contest for the best concise slogan to be linked with the name of Prince Rupert for publicity purposes. Entries will be received forthwith and up to the closing date of April 15.

The procedure will be to have elimination judging at the end of each week during the contest, the best slogans each week to be chosen and, after the final closing, the judges will make selection of the winners of two cash prizes for the entries considered first and second best.

Concise and appropriate text will be the determining factors in selecting the winners. In other words something snappy and to the point is desired. Illustrations which might be quoted as such as "Follow the Birds to Victoria," Victoria's slogan, and "The City of Roses," which is Portland's.

With April 15 as the closing date, final judging will be carried out April 17 and announcement of the winners made the following day.

The judges will be Ald. N. E. Arnold, J. S. Wilson and G. A. Hunter.

C.W.A.C. Teaching At Smithers

SMITHERS—Miss Nora Ryan arrived in Smithers recently to join the staff of the High School, replacing Mr. Gray, who resigned some time ago. Miss Ryan has just received her discharge from the Army, having spent three years in the C.W.A.C. Prior to her enlistment she taught in several towns in the Kootenays. Her home is in Chilliwack.

Northern Woman Has Wonder Hand

VANCOUVER — Mrs. W. R. Adams of Usk picked up a 29 hand—the one-in-a-million chance, according to the experts—while playing a game of cribbage with her brother, George Durham. Mrs. Adams, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. G. Bowie, 3896 West Twenty-ninth, was holding three fives and the jack of spades—and then cut the five of spades. Mrs. Adams is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Durham, who are also visiting here from Usk.

Downey Interior Teachers' Head

SMITHERS—A meeting of the Skeena-Omineca Teachers' Association was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. English in Smithers last Saturday. Present were S. R. English, R. J. Downey, Mrs. E. Herman, Mrs M. McPhee, Miss N. Ryan and Miss R. McIntyre of Smithers, and J. M. MacAulay, A. J. Clotworthy and Miss B. Beale of Telkwa. The purpose of the meeting was to elect a new president and a representative to the district council at Prince George and also to decide a quorum. R. J. Downey was elected both as president and representative to the district council. It was decided that any five members would constitute a quorum. The meeting then adjourned.

IMPORTS NECESSARY

In normal times, British farmers are able to produce 40 per cent of the food needed for the nation.

VETS GET PRIORITY

To Have First Call On Home Building Materials

OTTAWA (CP)—The Reconstruction Department has released more details on yesterday's statement that veterans will be given top priority in building materials. The new proirity order was announced by Reconstruction Minister Howe on the floor of the House of Commons.

It is intended to channel scarce building materials into government-approved low-cost housing projects such as those undertaken by Wartime Housing Limited and under the Veterans' Land Act.

The order also gives priority to individual veterans who have homes seventy-five percent built and are held up because of lack of materials.

NEW TRIAL AS JUROR TOO OLD

MEDICINE HAT, Alta. (CP)—The age of one jury member has resulted in a new murder trial for German war prisoner, Lance Corporal Johannes Wittinger. He was granted a new trial by Chief Justice W. R. Howson of Alberta Supreme Court when it was learned that one member of the jury did not qualify under the age clause for jury duty.
