CARDINALS ARE WINNING GAMES

MIAMI—When the New York Yankees trimmed the St. Louis Cardinals recently by their famous big inning tactics, the Red Birds must have been impressed as they have started winning their games in the same fashion. The Cardinals chalked up their fourth straight win in the Florida training circuit Wednesday as they trounced the Boston Red Sox 9-6. Two big rallies featuring the big bats of Ray Sanders and Marty Marion did the trick.

SEVEN STRAIGHT BO-ME-HI WINS

Macey's Unable to Down Them—Savoy Beats Co-op

Bo-Me-Hi Rainmakers stepped out to take their seventh straight win in the Intermediate Basketball League in the armory last night when they trounced Macey's 56 to 25. It was a fast, rough game which was distinguished by clean sportsmanship on both sides. In the second Intermediate game Savoy overcame Co-op by a score of 34-31 and, in the Junior League opener, Watts and Nickerson took Sea Cadets 32-14.

Macey's, in an all-out effort, employed every tactic available to nip off Bo-Me-Hi's scoring. The students gained the lead early in the first quarter and kept it throughout the game. In spite of the rough play, there were very few fouls called.

High scorer was Frank James of Bo-Me-Hi with 16 points, followed by Don Hartwig, also a student, with 14.

In the second Intermediate game, Co-op, which downed Macey's on Tuesday, itself went into defeat before Savoy last night.

Actually, Co-op's defeat was a reversal of what the fans expected early in the game for Savoy literally snatched victory in the last few minutes of the final quarter. Half time score was 21-10 in favor of Co-op but, during the second half, Savoy marksmen tallied up an additional 24 points while Co-op made the second half yield ten. Final score was 34-31 for Savoy.

Viereck of Co-op marked up the game's highest individual score with 14 points, followed by Joe Davis of Savoy with ten points.

Watts and Nickerson had an easy win over Sea Cadets in the opener. They led all the way, and at no time did the Cadets even threaten their lead.

The Clothiers handled the ball well and made the most of their shots. High scorers were Skog and Nordgaard of Watts and Nickerson, with eight points each.

Indiividual scores:

Bo-Me-Hi—J. Forman 10, F. James 16, D. Hartwig 14, M. Thompson 10, R. Lavigne 4, E. Ciccone 2, J. James, C. Miller.

Connie Mack Drops Two of His Players

MIAMI — The roster of the Philadelphia Athletics was cut by Manager Connie Mack when Outfielder Ira Houck and Infielder Nelson Fox were optioned to Toronto of the International League. The transfer of Houck came as a surprise to Grapefruit League followers as the young outfielder had been hitting the ball hard in workouts.

GREENVILLE WINS NAAS HOOP TOURNEY

GREENVILLE — At a recent basketball tournament here, four Greenville teams outpointed four teams from neighboring Kincolith in a two-game series which placed the Greenville Athletic Club is a position to compete with Aiyansh for the Naas River championship.

Only in three games out of eight did the visitors emerge victorious. That was in the Senior "B" series in which they took two games by scores of 37-33 and 25-16, and in the Intermediate play when the Kincolith Tigers defeated the Greenville Gashouse in the first game by a score of 28-22.

During the first night's play, the Greenville Juniors defeated the Kincolith Woodpeckers 21-14, following it the next afternoon by overwhelming the visitors 22-8.

In the senior series—the real pay-off—Greenville took the first game by a score of 43-24, winning an almost identical victory the second night when the closing score was 43-25.

Total points for the whole series were:

Juniors—Greenville 46, Kincolith 47.

Intermediate — Greenville 48, Kincolith 47.

Senior "B" — Kincolith 62, Greenville 48.

Seniors—Greenville 86, Kincolith 49.

During the tournament the visitors were made welcome by banquets, parties and dances, and on the final night, a concert.

SHORT SPORT

Veteran shortstop Bill Jurges was released unconditionally yesterday by the Boston Bruins. The Braves picked him up after he had been released by the New York Giants.

Although Joe Gordon will be on the sidelines for a month with a finger injury, Joe McCarthy of the New York Yankees plans to keep George Stirnweiss on third base. The Yanks will use substitutes at second until Gordon can resume playing.

Bing Crosby and Bob Hope Coming

WINNIPEG — A local newspaper, the Tribune, says in a newspage story that Bing Crosby and Bob Hope might be in Winnipeg to take part in the $12,800 open golf tournament beginning August 8. The newspaper says the movie and radio stars have not completed arrangements but they have more or less made plans to be in Winnipeg for the tourney.
