BLACK BEARS ACTIVE IN TOWN— BOTH MOOSE MEN AND WOMEN BUSY

STEWART—Black Bears are very active again, one being shot at Marmot River and one in the middle of town. Last Friday a good sized two-year-old was seen ambling along Brightwell Street within half a block of the Government building. On Sunday Mrs. Edith Behnson chased one away from the chicken house where he was trying to get in at the pan of chicken feed. He returned later and took the pan and contents off into the woods. Lou Behnson, summoned, came home on the run and managed to get a couple of shots at it but, owing to the dense brush, could not tell whether he did it any permanent injury.

The Women of the Moose (Chapter 16) continues very active and is adding to its membership. On Thursday under the capable direction of Senior Regent, Mrs. Ella Storie, a very fine initiation ceremony was carried out. After the ceremony members and guests who arrived after the meeting, spent an enjoyable evening with games and refreshments. The unique feature of this Chapter is its international aspect, half of their members being from Hyder, Alaska, and both the Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes are featured in all their ceremonies.

The men's organization, Portland Canal Lodge No. 1218 Loyal Order of Moose, opened the autumn season with a whist drive and dance in their hall on Sixth Street, over sixty being present, both cards and dance being thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. Winners in the whist were: women, Mrs. V. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Betty Walker; men, H. C. Bennett, Hugh McDonald.

Stewart Superior School is in process of having its annual overhaul. Mr. Schon is doing the painting and decorating.

Bill Crawford Wrestles With Equine In Air Transport Feat

Something new in transportation in Northern British Columbia was enacted a few days ago out of the revived Portland Canal camp of Stewart when Pilot Pat Carey of Central British Columbia Airways Ltd. and W. J. Crawford, veteran transportation man, got their heads together and accomplished the feat of transporting a big packhorse from Stewart to Unuk River country at the order of Thomas S. Mackay, president of the Unuk River Gold Mine. It was the first time that livestock had been flown from Stewart.

Mackay had purchased the big horse named "Tony" for use at the Unuk River property but the problem was getting Dobbin to his destination over that rugged country. Pilot Carey was ready to fly the animal in but didn't intend to have an excited piece of horseflesh cavorting in his fuselage after his Norseman seaplane took to the air. It was here that Bill Crawford, horse disciplinarian par excellence, was pressed into service for expert assistance.

Hobbled and wrapped in a cargo sling loaned by Capt. Ernest Sheppard of the steamer Catala, an unwilling "Tony" after a good deal of pushing and hailing, was finally deposited in the plane. Then the substantially proportioned Crawford took his seat on "Tony's" neck to keep him company while Tommy Mackay took his position at the tail end. At the 6000 foot level, the draft got a little too much for "Tony" and it was then that Crawford, who has wrestled with many a package of freight and cinched thousands of cranky cayuses or stubborn mules in his day, had to go to the mat with 1000 pounds of startled horseflesh. With the assistance of Mackay, Dobbin was finally subdued and eventually landed safe and sound on the shores of isolated Mackay Lake. It was not long after he was released from his airborne entanglements that "Tony" was gazing contently in his new home. Bill Crawford admitted, on his return to Stewart, that it was the most strenuous forty miles of effort in all his forty-two years of freighting in the north. However, he had met the challenge and lived up to his tradition: "Whatever it is, wherever it goes, Crawford can move it."

KEEN PLAY IN BOWLING

The semi-final of the bowling singles at the local C.N.R. Bowling greens last evening between R. E. Benson and Gordon Forbes provide an extremely hard-fought match all the way through with Forbes finally winning on the twenty-third end by 18-15.

Forbes won the first two holes but Benson won the next seven and at the ninth end was leading 10-3. At the thirteenth he was 12-7 but at the seventeenth Forbes led by one point. Benson got on even terms with him at the 21st end 15-15, but Forbes won the next two ends and the match ended 18-15, but the last shot had to be measured to decide whose end it was.

Dibb Defeats Paul to Enter Semi-Final

Dibb will now meet J. McGreish in the semi-final to decide who will play Forbes in the final of the men's singles.

He: "Will you marry me?"
She: "I will never marry."
He: "That's what they all say, but they're still building school houses."

"I draw the line at kissing," She said in accent fine.
But he was a football hero
And so he crossed the line.

Wife: "Are all men as stupid as you are?"
Husband: "No, dear, look at all the bachelors there are."

A visitor at an asylum was watching one of the inmates pushing a wheelbarrow upside down.

"That's not the way to push that thing," the visitor exclaimed. "You've got it upside down."
"Oh, have I? I used to push it the other way, and they put bricks in it!"
