SEMI-FINALS IN NOVICE BOWLING

Morgan and Skinner Will Meet in Final of Singles

Two very keenly contested games in the semi-finals of the Novice Bowling competition at the local C.N.R. bowling greens last evening resulted in Skinner winning from Reid by 18-14 and Mergan winning from Mrs. Bohn by 18-17.

In the Skinser-Reid match Skinner got away to an early lead and on the 6th end was, leading 10-2. Mrs. Bohn took an early lead but Morgan tied the score at the fourth end. It was tied again at the sixth but Morgan took the lead for the first time at the seventh end. Mrs. Bohn took the lead at the 11th end and Morgan tied the score at the sixteenth end. It was tied again 17-all at the twentieth end but Morgan got the necessary point at the twenty-first end to win 18-17. This was a splendidly fought match. Skinner will now meet Morgan in the final of the Novice Singles.

IS SIMPLY DELIGHTFUL

Simply delightful is the best way to describe the great picture "Bells of St. Mary's" which is making a week's stay at the Capitol Theatre. It is a story of a Roman Catholic priest who is 10:00-Smooth and Sentimental assigned to the pastorship of a sisters' school in a great city, the sister superior of which is a broad - minded young woman. Comedy constituents, delicately handled, make the picture happy delineation although there are also moments of heartwarming pathos. It is one of those tender pictures which tug at the pulse strings and make one feel that there are many good things in life.

Bing Crosby has the part again of Father O'Malley in which he became so beloved in "Going My Way." Ingrid Bergman is the warm-hearted nun who, despite the cloth, still has vivacious and deeply understanding qualities. Henry Travers, as the millionaire who turns benevolent, and William Bergman, as an errant husband, Ruth Donnelly, the devoted wife, and Joan Carrol, new juvenile star, play other principal
