The Stewart Tennis Club is and everyone enjoyed themaway to a flying start and the members are looking forward to successful season. If the weather man keeps on as he has been going for the past week or two there is no doubt of it. The thermometer soars to 80 grees in the daytime and drops to 32 degrees at night. Blankets sweaters and coats are still required. The gardens are doing well notwithstanding the frost at night.

The local Union held a dance in the pioneer Hall, Hyder, Alaska. It was a very successful affair both socially and financially. There was a big turnout

Activities of Rup-Rec

SWIMMING—It is definite now that Rup-Rec instructress Marjorie Jackson will leave for Vancouver to attend a swimming course for instructors, sponsored by the Canadian Red Cross. On her return, she will teach swimming at the McClymont Pool. Mel Harper, who gives a good deal of his spare time to showing National Film Board movies at the Centre, is, we discovered today, a top-notch swimmer. Mel swam for the Y.M.C.A. and the Pacific Club in Victoria before he turned pro and he has promised to assist in whatever way possible in the summer swimming program.

WORLD SERIES AT CENTRE TONIGHT- Raymond Springs, who saw a preview of the 1945 World Series film yesterday afternoon, says: "It's really goodthe way Hank Greenberg knocks those home runs is worth seeing." The show starts at 8:00 o'clock tonight in the Centre auditorium. This will be a real thril! for ball fans, young and old.
