MILK SQUARES ARE ATTRACTIVE

LONDON (CP) — To make milk even more attractive to children the Ministry of Food is to distribute it to schools in solid squares attractively flavored.

The solidified milk squares will be in nine flavors, including raspberry and orange, and the ministry is considering issuing them on the last day of the term so that the children will have a supply during their holidays.

I. M. Mackinnon, War Assets manager, leaves on tonight's train for Edmonton where he will board a plane for Whitehorse to inspect American Army installations in the Yukon and along the Alaska Highway. He expects to return to the city about June 15 before removing permanently to Edmonton where he has established an office.

LINING FIGHTERS FOR LEGION CARD

The Canadian Legion boxing committee is lining up fighters for the forthcoming fight card at the Civic Centre. In addition to the wind-up bout between welterweights Len Hitchens of Prince Rupert and Billy McDonald of Vancouver, three preliminaries have been arranged, according to committee chairman James Nicoll.

Already training at the Civic Centre are several local boys whom the promoters believe will put up real shows. Alex Gomez and Jim McDougall are training for their bout in which they will collide at 142 pounds, while 110-pounders Dick Smith and Sandy Hamilton are also undergoing intensive workouts.

Jordan Smith, who has achieved some local fame as an 80-pound fighter, will meet Billy Toders, of similar weight.

The committee is busy organizing other fighters for the card. Proceeds will be turned over to the Civic Centre.

LITTLE BLACK LAMB SHORN

CANBERRA (CP) — Prince William, son of the governor-general, the Duke of Gloucester, had his pet black lamb Sambo shorn.

Then he donated the money received for the wool to a fund for the children of Australian servicemen killed in the war.

Sambo is his favorite pet at Government House and, when young, followed Prince William about the gardens.

SHORT SPORT

Lou Gehrig, slugging New York Yankees first - baseman, made baseball history 14 years ago today when he smashed out four consecutive home runs at Philadelphia, to help Yanks beat the Athletics 20-13. Ed Phelehants did the same trick in 1896.

Lord Derby's "mud horse", Sansovino, plowed through to victory in the English Derby, bringing the stakes to the sportsman earl for the first time 18 years ago. It was also the first winner for the Derby family in 137 years. Sir Peter Teazle won the race in 1787.

NELSON POSES GOLF OPEN QUESTION

Big question mark in golfing circles these days—now that the ball supply situation is easing—is whether Byron Nelson will be on hand to defend his Canadian open title and the Seagram Gold Cup when the masters tee off over the Montreal Beaconsfield course June 27.

The "golfing machine" captured the trophy denoting top Canadian golf honors a year ago when he shot a par 280 over a stiffened Thornhill Golf Club layout north of Toronto. The Seagram Gold Cup has reposed in the club-house of Nelson's home course at Toledo, Ohio, since that time.

In the normal course of events Nelson could be expected to compete this year for retention of the gold cup and the lion's share of the Canadian open's $10,000 prize money. The fact that the British open follows closely behind the Canadian show, however, may mean that Nelson will be among the absent when affairs get under way at Beaconsfield.

Challenges of one kind or another have been flying back and forth across the Atlantic for several months, since outstanding British players indicated that they were not unduly impressed by some of the near-miracle scores Nelson has chalked up in winning a long series of events in the U.S. and Canada since he took the Canadian open.

While Nelson has not said definitely as yet just what his plans will be it as at least a possibility that he will decide to skip the Canadian open and go to Britain to settle the question of transatlantic golfing supremacy. There is a possibility, too, that a number of leading U.S. pros will also make the trip.

Whether Nelson is on hand or not, the Canadian open has been assured of a star-studded list of competitors. Strategically timed to fit into the summ... tournament schedule of t... Professional Golfers' Associati... of America, the open probab... will draw such well-known U... players as Sam Smead, S... Byrd, Ed Furgol, Craig Wo... Jug McSpaden, Tony Penna a... other American pros as well ... a full slate of top-ranking Ca... adian players.

All of which leaves the ma... ter of the next resting place ... the Seagram Gold Cup w... much in doubt. Since it fi... went up for competition in 19... the gold cup has done a lot ... moving about the country, m... of it south of the border becau... a Canadian golfer has yet ... keep it in Canada by winn... the Canadian open.

WANT TO BE AN ANGEL?

In 1945 28,500 persons became "stream-lined guitar plunkers" because of automobile accidents. The toll will be much greater in 1946 unless motorists pledge themselves to drive safely in safe cars. On May 15, the police of the United States and Canada, under the sponsorship of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, launch their Traffic Safety Check Program. They urge the driving public to cooperate by living up to the police slogan, "Check your Driving—Check your Car—Check Accidents."
