CRICKETERS MAKE MONEY LONDON, (P) - Although bad weather ruined several games. the Indian cricketers who toured Britain this summer feared expenses and made a small profit. The Nawab of Pataudi, the captain, and C. S. Nayudu returned to India by air but the others decided against it. They went home by cargo boat.

Plan to Restore UNVEILING Franklin House IS AWAITED

LONDON. (P-The British Society for International Understanding has launched an appeal for funds to restore its headquarters, the Craven Street house where Benjamin Franklin lived from 1757 to 1775. Named "Benjamin Franklin House," the building is the last surviving home of Franklin while he was London agent of Pennsylvania. Georgia, New Jersey and Massachusetts. The society terms it "a unique symbol of British-American solidarity." Windows were broken during the blitz and
