MUSICAL PICTURE

Blues, Rhythm, Ragtime, Swing —"Stormy Weather" Has 'Em All!

From vaudevihe, night clubs and musical comedy, as well as from Hollywood, has been assembled an array of entertainment headliners for their top-notch musical, "Stormy Weather," which comes Tuesday and Wednesday to the Capitol Theatre.

Something new in musicals, "Stormy Weather" has a film-full of stars combined with a story that is a cavalcade of rhythm. Boasting the best tunes of all, its production numbers are among the finest ever filmed. "Stormy Weather" is the story of swing on the upbeat . . . from the era of jazz, ragtime and, blues to the torrid tuneful tempos of today.

Lena Horne, Bill Robinson and Cab Calloway and his band top the cast of the tune-packed film. The late Fats Waller is also seen.

The story, which covers the period right after the last war up to the present day, sets the stage for the musical numbers by ingenious use of the flash-back device.

"There Are No Two Ways About Love," "I Can't Give You Anything But Love," and especially the tantalizing title number, "Stormy Weather," are rhythmic masterpieces.

Bill Robinson proves himself a talented comedian by his deft handling of the key role.

Cab Calloway, renowned for his band's music as well as his own singing, stands out. His capers are aimed at bringing smiles, and his music sets one's toes a-tingling as they play "Walkin' the Dog," "Ain't Misbehavin'" and "Diga, Diga Doo."

New tunes from the picture include "There's No Two Ways About Love," "That Ain't Right" and "My, My Ain't That Somethin'."

EARLY CAVITIES

Anti-Nazi Pastor In Torquay Post

TORQUAY, Eng., Mar. 13 (CP)—Object of bitter opposition when his name was proposed for the post, Rev. William Karle, German anti-Nazi and former associate of Pastor Niemoller, was inducted minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church here.

Two officials of the church resigned when his appointment was announced. When, according to Presbyterian custom, an official at the induction ceremony invited objectors to the new minister to follow him to the presbytery, no one responded.

The Bishop of Chichester was instrumental in aiding Mr. Karle to escape from Germany with his wife and two children.
