OLD AND NEW SONGS HEARD

A bright, melodious host of Aid held its annual fall tea and grand old songs and four new bazaar on Saturday. It proved songs are sung and danced to in very successful. Mrs. G. Mostad, the Bing Crosby comedy drama, the president of the aid, was "The Star Maker" which Capitol general convener and Mrs. J. Theatre will present on Wednes-

In several of the numbers, he will be accompanied by outstanding groups of child singers, assembled especially for the picture.

The new songs which Bing will sing include "Still the Bluebird Sings," "An Apple for the Teacher," "Go Fly a Kite," and "A Man and His Dreams," which already rank in the hit class. As in the case of the old songs, Bing | will have child singers furnishing vocal background.
