REMEMBERS MILK SHAKES

I know that one of the first things my mother, brother and I will do the minute we go back to the United States is to visit the corner drug store and have a chocolate milk shake.

English girls are giggly and 'childish" compared with Americans of their own age. They do not begin their social life until after they leave school and ften when they meet a man thrown off their balance by un expected admiration. Americans rauche because their social life as gone parallel with their school life. They can talk easily with men at 16, while their Eng ish sisters are still shy school-

Yet the all-round scheme of studies in an English school does ultimately deepen the mind, I think. The studies are kept parallel until a choice is made in the higher forms. Not being allowed to go out with boys until they are 1: SONATA in C SHARP until they leave, whereas American girls have school life in the term and a whirl in the vacation.
